THE PROCESSION OF LIBERAL CONVENTION DELEGATES ESCORTING HON. FRANK OLIVER FROM SEPARATE SCHOOL TO KING EDWARD HOTEL

SIFTON TO SPEAK AT THISTLE RINK MEETING

Minister of Interior and Alberta Premier to Address First Big Meeting of Campaign in Edmonton on Wednesday, September 6.

Now that the big Liberal convention is over the election campaign is being carried forward with redoubled energy by the supporters of the Hon. Frank Oliver, who was yesterday nominated as candidate for the House of Commons amid scenes of indescribable enthusiasm. All arrangements have been completed for the holding of a monster mass meeting in the Thistle rink on Wednesday, September 6th, a week from today. The minister of the interior will be the principal speaker. The Hon. A. L. Sifton, premier of Alberta, will also speak. Senator Talbot will occupy the chair. A band has been engaged for the occasion and a street parade will probably be held prior to the meeting.

Meetings in Other Constituencies.

With the campaign in the Edmonton constituency reduced to a straight Liberal and Conservative, and reciprocity and anti-reciprocity battle by the retirement of the Hon. A. C. Rutherford, of Strathcona, from the arena, the minister of the interior is now preparing to lend a hand to Liberal candidates in other constituencies. On Friday of this week he will address a meeting at Fort Saskatchewan and on Saturday he will speak at a meeting in Lloydminster, both in Victoria constituency. On Thursday, September 7th, he will go to Wetaskiwin to address a meeting of electors of the Strathcona constituency.

Meeting at Namao.

Mr. Oliver was last night given a great reception by the farmers of Namao. He drove north to this point in the evening and addressed a meeting in the Namao school house. Geo. S. Long occupied the chair and the school room was well filled despite a downpour of rain which came on early in the evening. Mr. Oliver was the only speaker, and the subject of his address was the reciprocity agreement. The audience seemed to have no two minds on this question judging from the applause which broke out as Mr. Oliver drove home his convincing arguments. At the conclusion of the meeting a vote of thanks to Mr. Oliver for his address was unanimously passed.

Norwood Meeting Tomorrow.

On Thursday evening, Mr. Oliver will address a meeting in Oddfellows' hall, Norwood, on the Norwood boulevard, just east of Syndicate avenue. A Ruthenian smoker will be held on the same evening. Tonight Mr. Oliver will speak at a meeting in the school house at Horse Hills, a mile east of the Half-Way house, on the Fort Saskatchewan trail. On Saturday of this week a German smoker will be held in Neher's hall, Namayo avenue. A program for this meeting is now being arranged.

Other Meetings of Campaign.

On Monday, Sept. 4th, Mr. Oliver will speak at a farmers' picnic at Edison, and in the evening will address a meeting at Legal. On Tuesday, Sept. 5th, he will speak at a meeting in Flynn's hall, Riviere Qui'Barre. Arrangements are being made for meetings at Entwistle on Tuesday, Sept. 12th and at Morinville on Wednesday, Sept. 13th. A program of meetings is also being arranged for all the outlying districts of the constituency, the meetings to be addressed by various prominent Liberals.

BROTHERS MEET IN EDMONTON AFTER 45 YEARS SEPARATION

GEORGE KENNEDY, AN OLD TIMER IN THE EDMONTON DISTRICT, SHAKES THE HAND OF HIS BROTHER, FROM KAMLOOPS, B. C., WHOM HE HADN'T SEEN FOR 45 YEARS—MET BY CHANCE

By the merest accident George Kennedy, who has lived in Edmonton for twenty-one years, this week met his brother, J. F. Kennedy, Kamloops, B.C. whom he had not seen for forty-five years, and who was on a visit to this city. Neither brother knew where the other lived, and they had never corresponded.

George Kennedy, who is the older, left St. Andrews, Man., where the family was born, in 1866, and proceeded to the far north for the Hudson's Bay Company. He was stationed successively at Fort Chipewyan on the Athabasca river, St. John's and Hudson's Hope on the Peace River, and in the Grande Prairie. He was for 25 years in the Athabasca and Peace river country, and for ten years was connected with the company in the Edmonton district. Eleven years ago he retired, and has since been living in Edmonton, at the corner of Pine and Lorne streets, Norwood. Mr. Kennedy has a grown-up family, the youngest a daughter, being thirteen years of age. The eldest, a son, James A., is on a homestead at Radway's Centre, Alta. Three daughters are married. They are: Mrs. McKay, who married a son of Dr. McKay, of Edmonton; Mrs. Peter Borwick, of Andrew, Alta.; Mrs. Russell Williamson, of Radway's Centre. The youngest daughter is Maud, who is residing with her parents. Besides James A., there are two other sons, George F., and Frank. There are five grandchildren.

J. F. Kennedy, the other party to this remarkable re-union, left St. Andrews, Man., in 1878. He first went to Prince Albert, Sask., where he remained for fourteen years. He then went to Winnipeg, where he became connected with the C. P. R., and where he spent two years. He was later transferred to British Columbia, and in that province he has lived in the towns of Kalso, Grand Forks and Kamloops. He is married, but has no family. He is freight agent for the C. P. R. at Kamloops.

Three sisters and two brothers of the original Kennedy family at St. Andrews are still alive. They are: Mrs. Taylor living at Onoway, Alta.; Mrs. Ross, living at St. Andrews, Man.; Mrs. Watts, living in Nelson, B.C. The brothers are: Albert at Springfield, Man., and William at Wingard, Sask.

It was by the strangest kind of an accident that the two brothers met in the city this week. J. F. Kennedy happened to be in the city on a visit, and while here learned that a certain George Kennedy who had been in the north for many years was a resident of Edmonton, being one of the old timers. On looking him up, he discovered that he was a brother. The two men have spent the intervening time in telling each other how the world has used them since they parted forty-five years ago.

MURDER OF 10-YEAR-OLD BOY AT MORINVILLE.

A ten-year-old boy, named McNaughton, was murdered yesterday evening on his father's farm, five miles out of Morinville. The lad was alone in the house with his sister, a child younger than himself. Particulars were not available at the time of going to press, but Coroner Forin and Detective Sergeant McCarvell, R.N.W.M.P., left this morning for Morinville, where an inquest will be held today. The boy was killed with a shot-gun. A man in the employ of the Cardiff mines has been arrested and is held by the police.

HARRIS HAS CONFESSED TO SMUGGLING OPIUM

Man Recently Arrested in Chicago, in Whose Suit Case 47 Cans of Opium Were Discovered, is Wanted in Winnipeg for Embezzlement.

St. Paul, Aug. 29.—William L. Harris, arrested recently in Chicago, and in whose possession was found a suit case containing forty-seven cans of contraband opium, today will confront the man who, he alleges, has acted as an intermediary in passing the drug from the northwest coast through St. Paul to Chicago and eastern points by means of a decoy letter purporting to have been sent by Harris. Government agents yesterday placed in custody C. R. Cochbourne, the man who, it is alleged, has engineered the smuggling scheme by which the drug in gross quantities has been brought into the United States. Cochbourne is now under arrest. To the government officers he denied all knowledge of alleged opium traffic through the Twin City, and said the suit case containing the drug had never passed through his hands.

and that any statements made by Harris connecting him with the alleged smuggling are false. Harris made a complete confession to the government agents in Chicago yesterday, it is said. He is wanted in Winnipeg on a charge of embezzlement and will arrive in St. Paul today in custody of Canadian officers, extradition having been waived. St. Paul customs officials will meet the train and if Harris is the man wanted in connection with the smuggling transactions he may be held here pending action by the United States authorities.

St. Johnsbury, Vt., Aug. 29—The express on the St. Johnsbury and Lake Champlain railroad, en route from Portland, Me., to Montreal, was derailed by a washout east of St. Johnsbury today, seventy-five passengers being injured, some seriously. The engine, tender and baggage car and the forward coach left the rails, Engineer Humphrey and Fireman H. W. Jackson being badly injured.

New Japanese Government.

Tokio, Aug. 30—Marquis Saionji, who succeeds Count Katsura as premier, will submit the names of his selected cabinet to the emperor today after which it is expected an official announcement will be made. It is considered probable that Baron Uchida, ambassador to the United States, will assist in the office of foreign minister.

PUBLIC MEETING ON THE WATER SHORTAGE

Mass Meeting of Citizens to Be Held to Discuss the Water Problem. Petition Circulated Requiring Mayor to Call Meeting.

A public meeting will in all probability be held to morrow evening in the Separate school hall for the purpose of discussing the present shortage in the water supply throughout the city. A petition asking the mayor to call this meeting was circulated this morning. The number of signatures of ratepayers required by the provisions of the city charter was secured and the petition will be presented to the mayor this afternoon.

Dissatisfaction with the condition of the water supply throughout the city during the past few months is general, and the resulting inconvenience to business men and occupants of private houses has been of so serious a character that a large body of ratepayers have determined that remedial measures must be taken at once.

The failure of the filters at the beginning of the season to perform the work for which they are intended was followed a few weeks by the break in the big main which filled the pump pit and put the six million gallon pump out of commission. During the period in which the necessary repairs were being secured from the company's works in Toronto the remaining pumps proved to be unequal to the task of supplying the city with water and the pressure was so low that in most of the larger buildings no water was obtainable above the ground floor and many buildings were at times entirely without water. The main was finally repaired with parts manufactured locally and the big pump was again put in commission. A marked improvement in the supply resulted, though many large buildings were still unable to obtain water above the ground floor. Yesterday this pump broke down a second time. Though the necessary repairs were speedily made and the pump put in commission again this morning numerous complaints were received at the city hall before noon that water was not obtainable in some buildings even on the ground floor.

The story was advanced at the City Hall that when it was found that the supply was available once more many people, fearing another breakdown, made provision against this contingency by storing water in every available utensil, thus creating a demand which for a few hours was greater than the supply. This theory was supported by the fact that towards noon an improvement was observed.

If the pumps were all doing the work which they are supposed to do, those which are held in reserve should be equal to supplying the city with water without the assistance of the Inglis pump. Latterly, however, even this pump, assisted by those held in reserve, has proved unequal to the task.

It would appear that the Inglis pump, while it is admittedly an excellent machine, is not too well suited to perform in Edmonton. The water from the Saskatchewan, as the consumer is only too well aware, contains a large amount of sand in suspension, and this sand speedily destroys the six hundred valves in the pump, thus reducing the capacity of the pump.

While a special committee is engaged in the preparation of plans and estimates for a new water supply plant, an appropriation of $6,000 having been recently made by the council for this purpose, the establishment of such a plant would necessarily occupy several years, and meanwhile steps must be taken so to improve the present plant that it will meet the needs of the city.

FRED T. CONGDON MAY GET AN ACCLAMATION

Petition Has Been Widely Signed in Yukon Territory Seeking to Have Mr. Congdon Accept Nomination for Re-election.

Dawson, Y.T., Aug. 29.—A petition has been circulated and signed by hundreds of voters of all shades of political beliefs throughout the Klondike and White Horse districts, in the Yukon Territory, and will very likely result in Mr. Congdon being returned by acclamation.

August 7th, 1911.

To Frederick T. Congdon, Esq., K.C. M.P.,
Dawson, Yukon Territory.

Dear sir,—We, the undersigned electors of the Yukon Territory, desire to record our high appreciation of the very efficient manner in which you have discharged your duties as our member of Parliament at Ottawa.

We request that you allow yourself to be nominated for re-election on September 25th next, and trust that you will be returned unopposed.

To be correct, there is from 80 to 85 per cent. of the voters who have already signed in favor of Mr. Congdon. Reciprocity is very popular in the Yukon.

IS AWAKENING FROM TRANCE OF SIX DAYS

Mysterious Sleeping Girl in a Montreal Hospital—Shows Signs of Returning Consciousness—Health is Unimpaired.

Montreal, Aug. 29.—Not till this, the sixth day of her trance, did Blanch David, the mysterious sleeping girl at the Western hospital, show positive signs of awakening. As fresh as ever, she lies in her cot still drowsy, but able to ask for things and seemingly fully alive to where she is. Occasionally she asks one of the nurses for water, and, when held to her lips, is able to swallow it unaided. The doctors are of the opinion that it will be some days before the girl is awake. Doctors at the hospital are of the opinion, beyond the liability of sleep to overcome her again, her health is not impaired.

$7,000,000 Worth of Lumber Cut.

Ottawa, Aug. 29—Lumbering statistics completed by the forestry branch show that nearly five billion feet of lumber was cut all over Canada last year, worth seven and a half millions. Ontario leads the other provinces.

MARITIME PROVINCES SOLID FOR RECIPROCITY

Fishermen and Farmers of Both Parties Join Hands in Support of Pact. Minister of Finance Delivers Strong Speech at Digby. Laurier's Triumphal Tour.

St. John, N.B., Aug. 29—The feature of the political campaign in the Maritime Provinces is the way the large dealers in fish are rallying to the support of the Liberals. At Halifax, W. Smith, one of the largest exporters of fish in Canada, has left the Conservatives and is now actively supporting the Liberals. He attended the Liberal convention in Halifax.

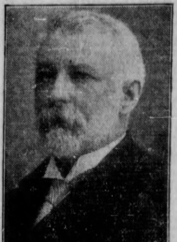
C. E. King, of Port Elgin, N.B., said to be the largest producer of smoked herrings in the world, attended the Liberal convention at Moncton and declared that though a Conservative he was supporting reciprocity. He operates factories at Port Elgin, Northport and Tidnish. If the agreement were ratified he would at once enlarge his factories. There is a very decided drift to the Liberals all over the province. Among the Conservatives who are openly supporting reciprocity are George Gardner, a well known fish dealer, of St. Stephen; John Sutton Clarke, a fish packer of St. George; David Johnson, ex-warden of Charlotte; W. R. Rigby, of Hartland, and Senator Baird.

Hon. Mr. Fielding Well Received.

Digby, N.S., Aug. 29—The minister of finance was cheered enthusiastically at a meeting here which he addressed with Sir Wilfrid Laurier last night. He defined the Liberal policy as designed to reduce taxation and increase trade. The present campaign was not a party battle. Sir Wilfrid Laurier in this election was leading the party of reciprocity. To the Conservatives he appealed to discard the advice of the Little Conservatives of the present and follow the policy of the great Conservatives of the past. Even when the national policy was promulgated in the Maritime provinces it was necessary for Sir Charles Tupper to "gild the pill with reciprocity."

Hon. Mr. Fielding stated that he was aware that many of the farmers and fishermen of Nova Scotia thought the reciprocity agreement did not go far enough.

"But I believe you are big enough to know that there must be give and take. In the cities the manufacturers claim protection from the larger and better organization of those engaged in manufacturing in the United States. We have to consider also not alone the capital invested, but those who work in these Canadian manufactories. So we said, 'No, there are some things in which we are just as big and strong as you are, but not in manufactured articles.' I am not prepared to do anything to strike down any legitimate Canadian interest. I was determined that if the manufacturers were fair and reasonable they should have my support."



HON. W. S. FIELDING, whose fighting speech at Digby, N.S., was enthusiastically received.

A voice—But they are fighting you in return. (Hear, hear.)

In Interests of Canada as a Whole.

"It may be," continued Mr. Fielding, "that some of the manufacturers have made us a poor return, some have unwisely let themselves be guided by political alarmists and some have even put up funds to defeat us. But all that cannot alter our position. We sought to be guided by the interests of Canada as a whole. (Cheers.)

"May be," continued the minister, "that we will lose a seat here and there because some manufacturers mistakenly and unwisely, I think, oppose us, but for every seat we lose we will pick up two or three from the farmers and fishermen."

"That's right," shouted a farmer, and the crowd roared its approval.

"Why should the president of the Bank of Commerce undertake to tell the farmers it will injure their loyalty to send their produce to the United States, when he sends his money to Wall street to get ten and fifteen per cent?" asked the Minister of Finance, amid another roar of cheering.

"We'll show him," said a fisherman, and pandemonium broke loose again.

"Yes," replied Mr. Fielding, "there are thousands of Conservatives who are willing to follow the old flag of Sir John Macdonald, not the new flag of eighteen millionaires in Toronto."

Means New Life for Maritime Provinces.

"Reciprocity," Mr. Fielding concluded, "means new life, new health, new strength and new hope to the Maritime provinces. Come every one of you, Conservative and Liberal alike, and help us get it."

"Three cheers for Mr. Fielding," shouted an enthusiast, and they were given with a will.

Hon. Charles Marcil followed with a spirited address. Both Sir Wilfrid and Mr. Marcil also spoke briefly in French, and the remarkably successful meeting concluded with cheers for Laurier, Fielding and reciprocity.

En route from Digby to Halifax, the Premier addressed meetings at Annapolis, Middleton, Kentville and Windsor. At all points he was accorded an enthusiastic welcome.

Sharpe Having Trouble in Gretna.

Altona, Man., Aug. 29.—W. H. Sharpe, Conservative candidate, has been campaigning during the past week in this section of Lisgar, but has not found the travelling easy. The reciprocity sentiment is very strong all through this district, the farmers having practically first hand knowledge of the value of the markets across the line. Mr. Sharpe's speech in parliament last year against government recognition of the Mennonites' adherence to non-combatant principles is making trouble for him with his Mennonite supporters. At the Altona meeting, Saturday night, he was asked by a member of the audience whether he had made such a speech. In reply, he claimed that his speech applied only to the future, and was not intended to interfere with any rights now possessed by the Mennonites. The official report of Mr. Sharpe's speech, which is being circulated throughout the district, shows that he denounced the consideration shown Mennonites as wrong, urged that in future immigrants of this character should not be exempted from the obligation to bear arms, and hinted that at some future time the rights already possessed by these people might be rescinded.

The actual demonstration that barley at Neche is 30 cents higher than at Gretna has also been a blow at Mr. Sharpe's candidature. To counteract it, a Conservative grain dealer at Gretna has declared that he will pay $1 a bushel for barley, provided it is offered to him in carload lots. Individual farmers here do not grow barley in those quantities, but it is probable that some syndicate will be formed to take advantage of the generosity of the Gretna grain man who is prepared to lose 30 cents per bushel on barley in the interests of Mr. Sharpe's candidature.

Let People of Churches Reach Wrongs From Which Masses Suffer, Says Lloyd George

London, Aug. 30.—David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer, while laying the corner stone for a chapel at Heath yesterday, appealed to the Christian churches to reach the wrongs from which the masses are suffering. "There are multitudes in the country who, notwithstanding their grinding toil, do not earn enough to keep body and soul together.

He said: "There are members of the churches who never have missed a delicacy, yet they become angry when another class of the population makes an effort to ameliorate its condition.

"Let them cease reviling and consider the conditions under which millions of poor workers live. If they do so they will realize their responsibility and remove the causes for unrest, lest the next struggle might prove infinitely worse."

STRATHCONA COUNCIL DELAY AMALGAMATION

Stormy Scenes Between Several of the Aldermen on Tuesday Night—Aldermen Rankin and Richards Are Principals in the Discussion

The Strathcona council shrank last night from taking the first step in amalgamation and the further postponement of the vote on the bylaw which embodies the agreement reached by the joint committees was the occasion of a personal tilt between Aldeman Rankin who has consistently championed the cause of union and Alderman Richards who gave the first intimation of opposition to the agreement which may be anticipated. Anderman Rankin's plea of all dispatch possible in putting the question to a popular vote without further amendments was supported by Alderman Tipton, who stated that he considered the work of the committees final in so far as the council was concerned and that now the case must be submitted directly to the ratepayers, the general terms of the agreement having been approved by the Mayor and council. The pros and antis lined up rather sharply and a solution was only reached by the concession made by Alderman Tipton who gave notion of putting the motion at the next regular meeting, waiving the privilege any alderman enjoyed of bringing up any new matter if permitted by a two-thirds vote of the council.

Agreement Came Up Late.

The amalgamation agreement was brought up late in the evening having been dropped out of the regular order of business awaiting certain information from Edmonton in regard to the day to be set for the vote in the two cities. When the council reverted to the appropriate order of business to permit dealing with the agreement and Alderman Laughlin moved the first reading of the bylaw, the pros were met with an inquiry from Alderman Richards as to the percentage of the Strathcona committee who were present at the final meeting of the joint committee at which the agreement was approved. The question was put to Alderman Rankin who took it as a personal matter and so replied. When the information was finally supplied Ald. Richards by a member of the Press present, that several members had not been there, Alderman Rankin pointed out that the report was a report of committee and not a majority report; if any members of the committee had any disagreement, they could air it in a minority report which had not yet been filled although weeks had gone by. Acting-Mayor Pollard suggested that the ratepayers would have ample opportunity to oppose the agreement on election day if they so wished.

Wants Amendments

Having failed to settle this point, Alderman Richards then went on to make inquiries as to the suggestions thrown out at last Tuesday's council meeting, for the amendment of the agreement. This too was a tender point for Alderman Rankin, but the latter stated that if further concessions were desired by members of the Strathcona council, there could be nothing thrown in their way. The only further clauses he had heard of were with regard to the moving of the power plant and the moving of pavements.

"Who said anything about moving granolithic pavement" exclaimed Ald. Richards, rising to his feet and shaking his fist across the room at Ald. Rankin, who was opposite. "I didn't think you were the man to make such an insinuation as that" continued Mr. Richards, "I took you for more of a man."

"I don't suppose I can consider myself a man when I stand beside you." was Alderman Rankin's quiet rejoinder.

The incident was quickly brought to a close.

Meanwhile some doubt arose as to whether the bylaw could be submitted at the meeting as at first thought, and the secretary was despatched to consult the charter. Alderman Richards took advantage of the few minutes respite to explain to the council that he had not preconceived antagonism to amalgamation but he did object to some of the clauses in the agreement; moreover, he claimed the right to ask and receive answers to questions; they were not asked to antagonise any member of the committee.

Wants Matter Settled Soon

The discussion was given another turn by Alderman Tipton, who took a hand for the first time. He hoped that the matter could be settled at once without further delay as Alderman Rankin wished to go east on business. The committee had sought to do their work as thoroughly as possible and although the agreement was not perfect he claimed it was a good agreement. If individual interests were continually consulted, the agreement could never be closed. The document was passed on by a majority of the committee, and now the council had no further authority to amend it. It must be submitted to the people. If the council would bear him out by a two-thirds vote he would move for a special meeting on Thursday to vote on the agreement.

On account of the strenuous objections registered by Alderman Richards who appealed to the solicitor for confirmation; he maintained that the council could at any time dismiss the committee and take the matter entirely into its own hands. He was borne out by Mr. Jameson.

Routine Business

The question of amalgamation overshadowed all others discussed which were for the most part of a routine character. Accounts to the extent of $11,304 were reported and passed. Secretary Cox also reported that owing to the troubles of the Manly Construction Company the acting mayor and himself had advanced the latter on account. The company was supported by their bondsmen and undertook that if such a situation arose in future the city could take over the work itself without delay.

The joint Fire and Light, Water and Sewer committee were instructed to call for tenders for the year's supply of coal the contract expiring the first of October. The question of gravelling the Edmonton, Ritchie and Walter hills was taken and discussed but nothing doe in view of the uncertainty as to the future use to which they will be put and the possibility of paving.

The council adjourned at 11:15, a discussion of the amalgamation agreement and kindred subjects lasting nearly two hours.

A record for outlying sub-division property in Strathcona was created a few days ago in the purchase by the real estate firm of Haggarty and Hall of 90 acres in the north-west quarter of section 23, to the south-east of the city for $30,000 or a little over $333 per acre. The property is to be held for sub-division into city lots.

STORM DID GREAT AMOUNT OF DAMAGE

Many Ships Reported Ashore on South Carolina and Georgia Coast—Six Torpedo Boats Wrenched From Moorings at Charleston Navy Yards.

Wilmington, N.C., Aug. 29—The fury of the northeast storm which raged along the South Carolina and Georgia coasts Sunday and yesterday was reflected in the number of marine casualties reported today at Southport.

A wireless early today from one of the Clyde liners, between Charlestown and Augusta, to the revenue cutter Seminole, of this station, reported the schooner Fortuna, 534 tons, lumber laden, dismasted 10 miles southward of Frying Pan shoals, and in a dangerous position. The cutter went to the rescue but had not returned tonight. Later the schooner Florence M. Penley, 927 tons, Captain Jameson, Tampa to Baltimore, was towed in off Cape Fear bar, by the tug Tormentor, with all head sails gone and leaking. The schooner Charles H. Valentine, 534 tons, was reported having gone ashore on Baldhead Island while attempting to sail in over Cape Fear bar for the harbor. She is reported by pilots to be in a dangerous position, but the tugs Tormentor and Sea King are expected to haul her off on high tide during the night.

The schooner Linah C. Kaminski, outward bound, from Wilmington to New York, lumber laden, rode out the storm since Saturday off Cape Fear bar with the loss of only an anchor and 40 fathoms of chain. The Italian bark Tomasso, 3552 tons, from Santa Cruz to Bremen, was towed in with the main yard carried away and short of water. The Clyde steamer Winyah, New York to Jacksonville, arrived slightly leaking and with her cargo of cement damaged.

Washington, Aug. 29—The raging storm which swept the south Atlantic Sunday night left its imprint on the navy. Six torpedo boats were wrenched from their mooring at the Charlestown navy yard and tossed tiers high upon the beach by the ninety-mile gale. Many buildings of the yard are believed to have been wrecked. No estimate of the damage can be made here because of the interrupted telegraphic service. It is not believed any lives were lost.

Pirates Attacked Fortress.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 29—A report has reached here from Kerch in Crimea that a band of pirates landed and attacked the fortress. The soldiers replied to the shots of their assailants with a heavy rifle fire, wounding many. Fifteen pirates were captured but most of the others made off in boats.

GREAT FARMING AREAS NORTH OF PEACE RIVER

Jas. Rutherford, Prospector, of Victoria, B.C., Tells of Country He Has Explored During Three Summers North of St. Johns.

"The most beautiful scenery between the Great Lakes and the Rocky Mountains."

"The finest farming country in the whole of Canada."

"An empire in itself."

These are the expressions applied to the far northwestern part of the Peace River country last night by Jas. Rutherford, prospector, a "dour" Scot of Victoria, B.C., recently returned from the unexplored parts of British Columbia along the headwaters of the two Pine rivers north and south of the Peace River block.

Mr. Rutherford has spent the past three summers in the north country and has every reason to know whereof he speaks when discussing the possibilities of the great hinterland. His travels have taken him over the greater part of Northern British Columbia and Alberta and his judgment is not likely to be warped by misinformation or superficial examination. One summer he travelled over the mountains from Prince Rupert, threading the Nechaco and Bulkley valleys and finally crossing the mountains by way of the Pine Pass at an elevation of no more than 2,870 feet. On different occasions his trips have taken him out into the vast unmapped region indistinctly marked on maps as lying north and east of Laurier pass. In describing this country seen by so few people even of those who have penetrated the Peace River country, Mr. Rutherford's enthusiasm knew no bounds.

"From one point about sixty miles north of Fort St. John you can stand on a hill and look off to the south and west and see a vast stretch of perfectly level country partially timbered but with open patches showing all over it. tI is the finest sight I have over it. It is the finest sight I have sembles a bit of English park scenery as far as the eye can wander, with lakes and water courses scattered all over and in the background the blue, indistinct ridge of the Rocky mountains.

The whole country Mr. Rutherford considers as a regular paradise, its topography and coloring giving it rank with the most perfect scenery in the whole of Canada. It is, moreover, a land especially suited to stock raising, the grasses and pea vine furnishing a most nutritious fodder.

Mr. Rutherford spent the past season at the headwaters of the Cutbank or Kit-ka-pis-cow river and Dawson creek, looking for coal areas to be developed by Vancouver and eastern capitalists. While he would make no definite statement as to the location of coal, Mr. Rutherford was not unwilling to state that coal had been discovered in many parts of the country—particularly about Hudson Hope and Fort St. John. He found Grande Prairie in a very flourishing condition, 1200 to 1400 havng assembled on July 3 to a sports meet. At Pouce Coupee he found wheat over five feet in height and with fine heads. Everything pointed to an especially favored year.

Bad roads are at present the drawback to the development. The rains of the past season have made them very soft and in places particularly between Edmonton and Athabasca Landing and between Grouard and Peace River Crossing.

WERE ARRESTED AS SPIES.

Two Englishmen and a Dane Taken Into Custody in Germany.

Kiel, Germany, Aug. 29—Two Englishmen and a Dane, who for several days have been cruising in the neighborhood of Kiel, were arrested today by the harbor police on the suspicion of spyinng. The suspects asserted their complete innocence of the charge and after undergoing a searching investigation were released today.

The three men were on board the motor fishing boat, the Depithin, of Denmark, and were observed yesterday carefully watching the summer manoeuvres of the German warship. They also had been seen within a few days at Sodenberg and Flensburg, and on the Schleifiord near Schleswig. Upon being examined the Englishmen said they were, respectively, a professor and a teacher of a high school, one of them also being the commander of a company of Boy Scouts.

Frozen Meat Competitors.

London, Aug. 29—The Australian government's new regulations regarding the export of frozen meat to foreign countries has been communicated to the Swiss federal authorities. Canada and Argentina, therefore, will shortly be added as the third serious competitor. Canada at present offers a slightly lower price than Argentina and now it remains to see what Australia can do in that respect.

O'TOOLE AND CY YOUNG WILL MEET.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 30—It is probable that Boston fans will witness today one of the most interesting pitching duels in the history of baseball. Opposed to each other in one game of a double header between Boston and Pittsburg, will be Marty O'Toole, the youngster for whose release from St. Paul, the Pirates recently paid $22,000, and Cy Young, the grand old man of baseball, the veteran of more than 800 games and 500 victories. It will be O'Toole's debut with Pittsburg, an event eagerly watched for since he joined the club.

FRANK OLIVER IS THE UNANIMOUS CHOICE OF MONSTER LIBERAL CONVENTION IN EDMONTON

Delegates Gathered from all Parts of Constituency Pay Tribute to the Late Federal Representative----Magnificent Gathering that Marks Epoch in Liberalism in Alberta.

With the utmost enthusiasm and unanimity the greatest Liberal convention ever held in Edmonton yesterday afternoon nominated the Hon. Frank Oliver as candidate for the House of Commons The convention which acclaimed the Minister of the Interior as its representative in the Federal campaign was one of the most remarkable political gatherings in the history of the city It was composed of solid, representative men from every part of the Edmonton constituency From the city there were personally present one hundred and seven duly accredited delegates, from the district ,extending east and west and hundreds of miles to the north of Edmonton, one hundred and six delegates; in all, two hundred and twenty-four representatives of the Liberals of the constituency. There were but eleven proxies, six of delegates from the city and five of delegates from outside The total number of credentials received was thus two hundred and thirty-five.

Every chair in the Separate School Hall, the place of meeting, was occupied and standing space as well was at a premium when the gathering was called to order at three o'clock by Senator Talbot, President of the Provincial Liberal Association, who presided over the convention. The meeting was open to all and hundreds attended as spectators. Numbers stood in the rear of the hall and outside the entrance being unable to find seats. Despite the crowded condition of the hall the meeting opened quietly and orderly. Business was conducted with despatch, that the main object of the meeting might be reached. Short speeches made by a number of delegates and visitors were well received. Resolutions of confidence in Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his administration, and in the Hon. Frank Oliver, Minister of the Interior, were passed with tremendous applause.

But it was not until the nomination was reached that the remarkable demonstrations of the feeling of the meeting were made. When W. T. Henry, of the Blowey-Henry Co., Edmonton, concluded an eloquent speech nominating Mr. Oliver, cheers broke forth in torrents. They were repeated when nominations were closed after the speech in seconding by Frank Smith of Spruce Grove, and the chairman announced Mr. Oliver duly chosen as the Liberal candidate.

An Inspiring Reception.

A few minutes later Mr. Oliver entered the hall, escorted by J. H. Gariepy. His entrance was greeted with the wildest cheering, delegates and spectators alike rising to their feet in a spontaneous tribute to the candidate chosen by the convention as the one most worthy to carry the Liberal banner in the Edmonton constituency. When the storm of applause had subsided, Mr Oliver made known his acceptance of the nomination, receiving it, he said, in the same spirit in which it was given. At the conclusion of his address, the cheering was renewed. The convention closed a few minutes later with the singing of the National Anthem. Delegates and many non-delegates present ,desirous of giving still further expression to their enthusiasm formed in fours on Third street in front of the hall and escorted Mr. Oliver along Jasper avenue and up First street to the King Edward hotel where he is a guest.

Upwards of five hundred men were in line, marshalled by Barney Cooper, with James Gibbon as leading deputy marshal. Flags were distributed among the delegates, the procession stretched out for two blocks. From the balcony of the hotel, Mr. Oliver took leave of the delegates, addressing a few parting words to the big gathering on the street below. Again he was cheered and re-cheered.

Absolute Confidence.

Absolute confidence in the success of their candidate in the forthcoming election was the keynote of the big convention. A spirit of absolute unanimity prevailed. The only question remaining to be decided, several speakers declared, was how large Mr. Oliver's majority would be. It should be made so large that it would establish a record for all Canada. While the committees on resolutions, organization ,and credentials were at work short addresses were made by J. L. Cote, M.P.P.; H. W. McKenney, M.P.P.; Lucien Boudreau, M.P.P., John A. McDougall, M.P.P., Stanley S. Jones, Calgary, secretary of the Provincial Liberal Association; Geo. B. O'Connor, president of the Edmonton District Liberal Association, and J. M. Macdonald.

A resolution expressing unbounded confidence in Sir Wilfrid Laurier, his administration and the negotiation of the reciprocity agreement, was read by Alex Stuart, K.C. of the resolution committee, and seconded by D. R. Fraser, and a resolution expressing entire confidence in the Hon. Frank Oliver was read by A. T. Cushing of the same committee and seconded by Robt. Lee. Both were unanimously passed with great applause.

The Nomination.

W. T. Henry moved the nomination of Mr. Oliver in an eloquent speech of eulogy in the course of which he declared that Mr. Oliver stood today as he had always stood for the rights of the people as against those of the corporations. Mr. Henry recalled how, single-handed and alone Mr. Oliver had fought the greatest of all Canadian corporations, and how when he came into office he put railway monopoly in Western Canada at an end. In addition to his extraordinary qualifications, Mr. Oliver stood as the representative of the Government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the greatest Canada had ever known. It was the duty of Edmonton Liberals to roll up for him a majority which would eclipse all past records and establish a record for the whole of Canada. The nomination was seconded by Frank Smith of Spruce Grove who declared that Mr. Oliver had been one of the most useful men in public life in the Dominion and would continue to be so after the 21st of September.

No other nominations were offered when the chairman called for them and nominations were declared closed and Mr. Oliver duly chosen as candidate. A few minutes later Mr. Oliver entered the hall escorted by J. H. Gariepy. He took the platform at once and addressed the convention when the storm of cheering which his entrance evoked had subsided.

Mr. Oliver's Address.

He spoke as follows:

"Senator Talbot has asked me if I would accept your unanimous nomination. I have only one answer to make, and that is that I accept it in the spirit in which it is offered. (Loud cheering).

"I believe you have given me the honor wishing me to win. (cheers). So far as I am able everything I can do to win, and to win with credit, will be done. You will excuse me, gentlemen, if I am somewhat at a loss to express myself on this occasion. I should not, I suppose, import the personal element into this occasion, but I cannot help but feel personally a deep sense of gratification and a sense of pride that I should be the choice of such a large and representative convention of the citizens of this great country, where I have lived so long, with which I have been so closely identified and with the life of which my hopes and aspirations are so closely associated. If there was one thing that I could have wished for it would have been to receive this expression of confidence on the part of my fellow citizens.

National Matters.

"We are not met here, however, to deal with personal matters. We are here to deal with national matters. We are here in the interests of Liberal principles, in the interests of Liberal policy, to give our endorsation to the principles and policy that we believe to be for the further advancement of this great country. It affords me the deepest gratification to find that from the southern boundary of Alberta to the northern boundary, wherever a convention has been held, there has been no quarreling as to who should bear the banner of the party. The people, having decided for the maintenance of these principles, have in every instance united in the choice of a man and in the determination to carry him to victory.

"The character of this convention and of the others indicates, I am satisfied, that the people of this province are of one mind in regard to the question at issue in this election. We are here for the good of the country. We are here for the progress of the country, and whether allied with one party or the other in the past, we are here today for the purpose of supporting the policies that we believe will ensure the progress and success of our country. We are not here merely as partizans. We are here to take the part which is ours by right and out as citizens of this country in the conduct of its affairs, satisfied that a certain line of action will be for the welfare of this country. Under these circumstances the fact that I should be chosen by you as your representative, with such unanimity—may I say with such enthusiasm—is certainly a matter of pride and gratification which carries with it only the doubt that I can justify the confidence which you have so fully placed in me.

Long Service for Country.

Gentlemen, I may say that I have been in the service of this country and of this part of the country for a very long period. Whether I did well or ill I want to say to you that I always did the best I could, that I held back nothing that I was able to do for the good of the people or of the [illegible] honored with the confidence of the people of this constituency, as I hope to be, I am here to give all I have in the way of energy and ability for the service of the people of this country, to carry out your mandate with benefit to you and with credit to myself.

"And now but one word more. I do not imagine that you wish me today to discuss the principles that you are here to support in this contest, but let me emphasize one point. You have decided in favor of a certain candidate. Now the success of the policy depends on the majority behind him. Though I spoke with the tongue of men or of angels it would be of little effect if it were not for the voice of the vote and the opinion and the strength of the people behind me. Now if I am to be your representative in parliament, and you say that I am to be, (applause), it is important that as your representative, if I am to be of service to this country, I should be made as strong as you can make me by the votes that you give. If you are satisfied with your choice then it is for you to be sure that you have done everything that you can do to make your chosen representative successful, not only in the election but in the responsibilities of administration that properly and necessarily follow election.

Appreciates Honor.

"I appreciate highly the honor of representing a constituency in the Dominion parliament. I appreciate still more highly the honor of representing this constituency, but I do not want to represent this or any other constituency unless the people are behind me, and unless I have such support as would leave beyond question the opinion of the people. I am going to do my part and I ask you to do yours. You have shown your interest in this contest by coming here today. I ask you not to let your interest cease with today, but to back up your action today by the efforts you can make between now and the twenty-first so that your representative can go to Ottawa with all the strength you can give him. My only fear would be that when we have met here together in such large numbers we might think that the fight was over. That is, or might possibly be, our danger. I do not think there is any serious danger that we cannot succeed with our election, but if we would be strong where we wish to be strong we want behind us the big majority that will demonstrate absolutely that the opinion of this country is not divided ,either in regard to the candidate of its choice or the policy of its choice.

The Government Policy.

"May I say one word in regard to the general policy of the government which is now appealing to the country—because let me bring to your minds that this is not only a matter of securing the election of a representative in this constituency but it is a question of securing a majority for the policy of the government throughout the Dominion. It may be, and in fact it is, a part of my duty in the responsible position which I hold at the present time to lend assistance in constituencies other than this. You will understand therefore, I hope, that if I do not spend the whole of the time between now and election day in this constituency it will be because of the requirement which exists for ensuring the success of the policies of the government throughout the whole of the country I will not detain you by entering upon the discussion of this policy in detail, but let me say to you that the Laurier Government stands for progress, it stands for equal rights, it stands for the good of the whole people. The question that is before the country at the present time, although it is receiving such an enormous amount of attention, is only one development, the latest development, of that policy of true Liberalism which is the policy of the Laurier government, and which has brought about that condition of success, prosperity and pride in our country that prevails throughout the land today.

THE BLACKMAIL ATTEMPTS.

"I do not know that I should leave this platform without a personal allusion. Many of you know that for some time past I have been the object of an attack of a sort that is certainly unique in this western country, which for that matter is entirely unique in the Dominion of Canada.

"I do not wish to make this an occasion for the washing of dirty linen in public, nor do I intend to take advantage of the fact that I am here in the presence of friends to speak of those who are certainly my enemies. But I want to say this, that all the advertising I have received ,could have been avoided if I had chosen to submit to political blackmail. Now I want it to be distinctly understood that no one ever could, and no one ever will be able to blackmail me, either politically, financially ,or in any other way. (Loud cheering.

I do not pretend to be better than any other man, but I do say this, that no man will ever hold control of me so long as I am on top of this earth. (Cheers.) That whether I have done good or ill I am responsible for what I have done, and will take that responsibility here or elsewhere. I want to say this, that the fact of such a campaign having been entered upon in this constituency of Edmonton tends to the discredit of Edmonton through the Dominion of Canada. (Hear, hear). It is not to the credit of Edmonton that it should be the place where this new departure was made in Canadian politics.

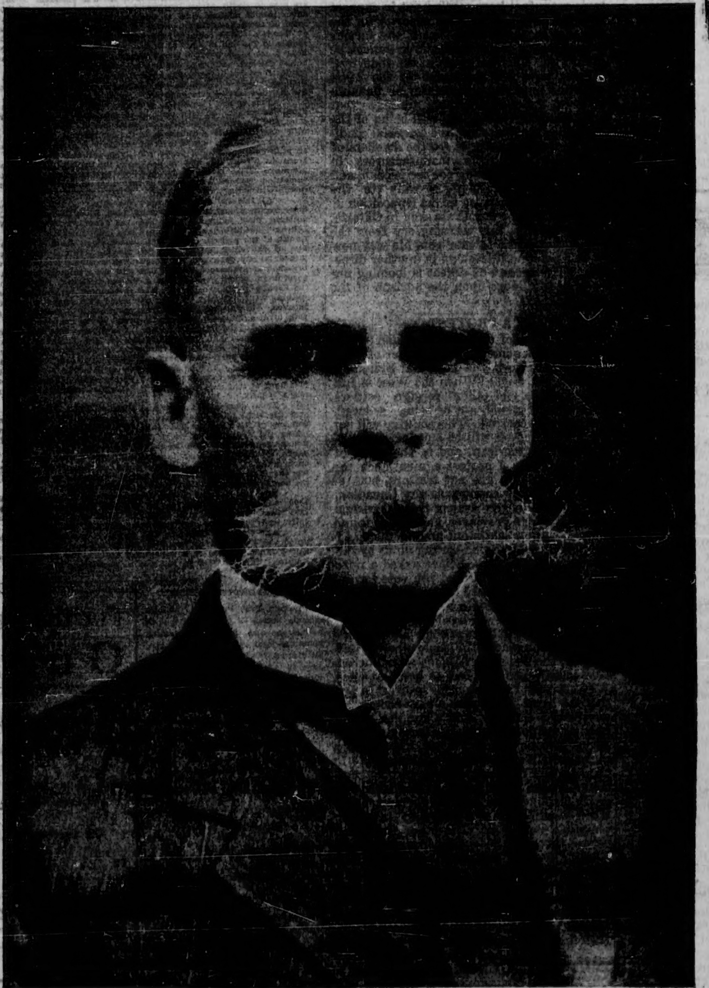
Only One Answer.

This kind of campaign, demands and admits of only one answer. It was commenced for the purpose of accomplishing my political destruction. It is being used today in the far eastern part of this country, and no doubt in the far western part, for the purpose of accomplishing the political destruction of the Liberal government and of the Liberal party. There is no way of dealing with such a campaign save one, and that is by the answer to be given by the electors at the polls. And I would say to this assembly that the opportunity will present itself on the 21st of September for clearing the fair name of Edmonton from the—I have difficulty in finding polite words (Cheers and laughter and cries of "Go ahead," "Let it go")—anyway you know what I mean.(Cheers). The opportunity will occur then for Edmonton to clear its fair name from—we will call it, if you like, the evil smell—that comes to it, because of the operations of a gang of thugs, thieves, cut-throats and blackmailers, who have undertaken to dictate the policies of this fair city, of this constituency and of this province. (Prolonged cheers).

Reflection on Edmonton.

It is an opportunity that I am satisfied will be seized and used to full advantage, and it is the only answer that can be given to a campaign that is a reflection upon the citizens and the city of Edmonton even more than it is a reflection upon myself.

Mr. President and gentlemen, I would not be warranted in holding you here longer. I am not able to express today as I would wish, on behalf of the Liberal party and of the great leader of the Liberal party, my appreciation of the splendid enthusiasm and unanimity of opinion that has been displayed. I hope and believe that this is an indication of the success that will be achieved on the 21st of September. But remember gentlemen—and this is my last word—remember that the success of the principles that you are here to represent depends upon you individually as much as upon me.



Hon. Frank Oliver, Minister of Interior.

Tribute to Senator Talbot .

Senator Talbot, who has presided at all the Liberal nominating conventions in the province by virtue of his office of President of the Provincial Liberal Association, called the convention to order sharp at three o'clock. He conducted the business of the meeting with admirable despatch, and introduced the various speakers with consummate tact. Towards the close of the meeting a vote of thanks to the chairman for his work in conducting the convention was moved by J. T. Travis-Barker, and seconded by the Hon. Frank Oliver, who declared that there was no truer friend of sound Liberal principles in Canada than Senator Talbot. He wished to say all that could be said of the reliability, integrity and ability of the Senator. The vote of thanks was carried unanimously with great applause.

When the meeting had been called to order, C Ross Palmer was appointed secretary. Geo. B. O'Connor, moved that committees on resolutions, credentials and organization be appointed, and named as a striking committee Wilfrid Gariepy, Frank Smith of Stony Plain and Harry Bell of Sturgeon. This committee retired and on their return named the following committees:

The Committees.

Committee on Credentials—Angus McDonell, Wm. Clark, Oscar Tessier, T. H. Wilson, Harry Bell, O. Comeau, G. B. O'Connor, Jacob Miller, G. Myers, C. Gagnon and C. R. Palmer.

Committee on Organization—J M. McDonald, J. Chave, T. J. Alexander, S. J. McCoppen, J. J. Creighton.

Committee on Resolutions—Alex. Stuart, J. T. Travis-Barker, R. Lee, Thos. Bellamy, D. R. Fraser, A. T. Cushing, W. Gariepy, S. A. G. Barnes, P. Kelly, E. Baldwin, Alf. Waite, J. E. McConnell, R. E. Bannerman, W. Pickard, Alcibiade Lamaureux, M. Hogan, Mr. Stewart, Sturgeonville, Geo. Wellman, Alex Lewis, Chas. Carson.

The resolutions introduced by the committee on resolutions were as follows:

The Resolutions.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted amid great applause:

Mover by Alex. Stuart, K.C., seconded by D. R. Fraser:

Resolved that the Liberals of the Edmonton Federal district assembled in convention on this 29th day of Aug. 1911, in the City of Edmonton, hereby express our unbounded confidence in the Right Honorable Sir Wilfrid Laurier. By his rare power of eloquent expression, his loftiness of motive, his sound judgment and untiring energy, he has done much to unite the various elements composing the people of this vast Dominion, and has made Canada stand forth as the greatest of the co-ordinate nations which are proud to form our great British Empire.

We believe in and continue to subscribe to the principles of Liberalism enunciated by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and so well illustrated by his successful negotiations for an honorable reciprocity agreement with our great Southern neighbor which must contribute greatly to the prosperity of our country.

Confidence in Mr. Oliver.

Moved by A. T. Cushing ,seconded by Robert Lee:

Resolved that this convention expresses its entire confidence in our representative the Hon. Frank Oliver, Minister of the Interior. Mr. Oliver has been identified with the Edmonton district for thirty-three years. He has been our representative in the Legislative Assembly of the N.W.T. and later in the House of Commons for many years. During the last six years he has held the high and responsible position of Minister of the Interior which department has to do with the administration of Western affairs. In his private business life as well as in his public career Mr. Oliver has earned a reputation for sterling integrity and high character which commands the respect and confidence of the whole country. He is our outstanding public man in the Province of Alberta, and has done more to advance the interests of this district and province than any other man in public life. The rapid railway development in the West, the active immigration policy of the Department of Interior and in general the progressive administration of the Government in the country is largely due to the earnest and able work of our member. He is therefore entitled to the active support especially of every Liberal in the district and of every citizen who has the interests of the country at heart.

The committee on organization recommended that the following be chosen as officers of the Edmonton Federal District Liberal Association and their report was adopted:

New Officers Elected.

The following is the result of the election of officers of the Edmonton District Liberal Association:—Honorable president, Right Honorable Sir Wilfrid Laurier; honorable vice-presidents, Honorable Frank Oliver and Honorable A. L. Sifton; president, Geo. B. O'Connor; 1st vice-president, L. Boudreau, M.P.P.; 2nd vice-president, C. H. Dunn; 3rd vice-president, J. Keithe; secretary, C. Ross Palmer.

Two representatives from each of the provincial ridings included in the Edmonton Federal constituency:—

Athabasca—J. L. Cote, M.P.P., and Hugh Hunter.

Peace River—Fletcher Bredin, ex-M.P.P., and A. L. Brick, ex-M.P.P.

Pembina—H. W. McKenney, M.P.P. and H. Bailey.

St. Albert—Angus McDonald and O. St. Germain.

Sturgeon—J. R. Boyle, M.P.P., and Harry Bell.

Clover Bar—P. Ottewell.

Stony Plain—Frank Smith and Jacob Miller.

Lac Ste Anne—J. J. Creighton and J. E. McConnell.

Edmonton—John A. McDougall, M.P.P., George B. McLeod, Wilfrid Gariepy and Alex. McLay.

Mr. Cote's Address.

J. L. Cote, M.P.P., was the first speaker called to address the audience in the interval while the committee were considering their recommendations. "I believe," said Mr. Cote, "that this is the most representative convention ever held in Edmonton. I see before me men from the city, from the east, from the west, and from hundreds of miles to the north. I do not know that we will have more than one nomination, and as for myself I have no hesitancy in naming Mr. Oliver.' Mr. Cote supported Mr. Oliver for two chief reasons; because he was a colleague of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and because of the work he had done for Alberta. Mr. Cote paid a glowing tribute to Mr. Oliver for his work in developing the northern portion of the province. From the time when he appeared before the senate committee, in 1888 to give them information concerning the north country and asking that steps be take for its development down to the summer of last year, when he took a trip through the north to the Arctic Circle himself, he had done everything in his power to bring about the opening up of the north country.

H. W. McKenney.

H. W. McKenney, M.P.P., spoke of the reciprocity agreement from the poit of view of an Alberta farmer. One benefit of reciprocity would be, he said, that it would offer an inducement to farmers of the Mississippi valley in the United States to come to Alberta where they could grow hard wheat instead of soft wheat and find as good a market as if they remained in the American Union. > "The home market of Canada is not able to absorb the products of both the eastern and western provinces and hon. gentlemen can easily see what a calamity it would be if we could not export our live cattle."
> "In the past our cattle trade on the great western prairies was a thriving business, but, as has been recently reported by the veterinary inspector of the government the ranching business of the west has been declining for years, largely because of the difficulty in sending live cattle to the English market so far distant from the western prairies."

Every Conservative should vote for reciprocity.

DOWN WITH IT!

The Journal has given up trying to make out a case against reciprocity and has taken to consulting the oracles. The C.P.R. officials are opposed to reciprocity; therefore, concludes the Journal, reciprocity must be a bad thing for the country.

That, of course, is a very convenient way of disposing of the matter, provided one has unbounded faith in the disinterestedness and wisdom of the C.P.R. officials. There, however, is the rub. There have been some other questions on which the C.P.R. officials and the public have not seen eye to eye. The construction of competing railways and the taxation of C. P. R. lands; these are two questions on which the officials of the company have been found to hold views not coincident with the views of the rest of the community.

The Journal refuses to believe that the officials had dividends in their minds when they conceived their dislike for reciprocity. It cites the Bulletin as authority that the C.P. is well prepared to handle traffic north and south, and declares it cannot understand why a road well prepared to handle traffic north and south should prefer to handle it east and west. Well, if the Journal cannot really understand that itself there is probably little use trying to help it. Perhaps Sir Thomas can give it a steer when he comes along. . Meanwhile, as an aid to partial illumination it may be reminded that it is farther from Edmonton to St. John than from Edmonton to Chicago or St. Paul—and that the amount of freight the C.P. gets on a car of cattle or wheat depends upon how far they have hauled the car. It is not at all a question of whether the C.P. "can afford" reciprocity, but of whether the C.P. wants to afford it—which the officials say it does not .

The chances are that it will take considerable persuading to make the public believe the interests of the C.P. and the interests of the public are always the same; that what the officials of the company condemn is unquestionably and invariably bad for the rest of the country; and that what they approve is always and altogether for the public good. There have been too many instances where this reasoning did not hold, and too many where the exactly opposite rule was found to be true. Taking the circumstances of the past and present into account it would be decidedly easier to persuade the public that they ought to vote for anything or everything the C.P.R. condemns than that they ought to vote against anything just because the C.P.R. condemns it. The C.P.R. is a business concern. Its officials tend to the C.P.R.'s business strictly and consistently—whether in politics or the company's offices, in parliament or a private car—leaving it to the public to look after themselves. The Journal seems to believe it can make the public think they ought to do the C.P.R.'s business too. At any rate it is making the attempt. The Canadian Pacific officials disapprove of reciprocity; therefore reciprocity should be voted down! Hooray!

GETTING NERVOUS

The Toronto News re-affirms that one reason reciprocity is being so vigorously fought is: "If we deprive the farmer of "protection he will demand free trade in "manufactures." That the farmer wants to be "deprived" of protection has nothing to do with the case, of course. That is an incident of the farmer's failure to comprehend the smoothness and sleekness and fatness of the protection theory—an error of judgment or short sightedness on his part from which he must be saved by the wiser people who dwell in Toronto and other large centres. The farmer must be "protected" whether or no; that is the demand of the Antis.

And for whose benefit is this undesired protection of the farmer insisted on? The farmer's benefit? Not according to the News. The fear of that paper is that if the farmer gets free trade in what he produces he will demand that the manufacturers also get free trade in what they produce. If the farmer finds that he can do business profitably without tariff favor, he will argue that others ought to be able to do the same—so runs the apprehensive logic of the News. The farmer it argues must be kept in a protected state—whether he wants to be kept so or not—in order that he cannot consistently demand the removal of protection from other classes of producers; that is the little game the News discloses.

The News is not a "farmer's paper." It relies for subsistence upon the industrial rather than the agricultural interests—and circulates among the industrial classes rather than the farming class. Its appeal is doubtless intended to catch the votes of those classes among whom its readers are found. If it could succeed in persuading the manufacturer and the manufacturer's employees that free trade in natural products is only the prelude to free trade in manufactured goods it would doubtless succeed to some degree in lining up these classes against reciprocity. To these its appeal is directed, and to them the appeal is to force the farmers into keeping protection that they may with better grace demand protection on what they are producing.

There are signs that an appeal of some kind is necessary if the industrial vote is to be rounded up for the opponents of reciprocity. Every day for weeks has seen Ontario manufacturers coming out in support of reciprocity and larger prosperity for the farmer; on the ground that if the farmer is prosperous the manufacturer cannot be otherwise. The workmen in the industrial centres have not responded to the Antis with the expected enthusiasm or unanimity. On the contrary there are signs that in those quarters too, the well-being of the farmer is recognized as the essential condition to work and wages for the dwellers of the cities. With the manufacturers in large numbers shouting for reciprocity, and their employees refusing to rally to the Anti banner, the cause of the Opposition is plainly becoming desperate even in Ontario. Hence perhaps this warning cry from the News that if the farmer gets his way now he will demand it later on in another direction. The spectre of defeat is looming uncomfortably large upon the horizon of the Antis.

A PROTEST.

To the Editor of the Regina Leader;

Sir,—As quoted in The Leader of Wednesday this week, the Montreal Star, in a recent issue, says: "When the West is full of American and other foreign settlers, then we are afraid, not of being seduced, but of being coerced. This country will not be bought out—it will be burglarized."

As an American, and in the name of the Americans, I protest against such an imputation. We are not traitors, but as loyal to our new country as any Canadian. My work is largely among the Americans in the Western provinces, and I have found no annexation sentiment among them. After this false issue was sprung on us by the Conservative leaders, I have asked a number of Americans, "Would you vote for annexation to the United States if that question were submitted to a vote?" and in every case the answer has been "No."

When we Americans come here we find the same language, the same liberty, and, largely, the same institutions as in our native country, and so feel at home at once. We very soon take the same interest in and feel the same love for our new country as we did for the old. Our Canadian neighbors do not look upon us as foreigners, nor do we so consider ourselves. I have taken no part in this or other political fights in Canada, but I cannot let pass without comment such an insult to us. It seems to me a party must be hard pressed for arguments when it will treat the voters to such contemptible nonsense. The other day I received through the mail a pamphlet containing nothing but warnings against the danger of annexation if this reciprocity treaty were adopted. The reading of it made me think of the old Roman saying, "Quem deus perdere vult, priusquam dementat"—"Whom the gods would destroy, they first deprive of reason."

Very respectfully,
T. K. THORVILSON.
Organizer and missionary of the Lutheran Church in Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

Here Is The Real Laurier

Toronto Globe—We want the British-born, and the Canadian-born, and the foreign-born to turn for a moment from the caricatures of Laurier as a continentalist, as a foe to the Empire, as a conspirator against Canadian nationality, that may be found every day in the Conservative press of this province, and take a look at the real Laurier.

The portrait is painted by J. S. Willison. In a book entitled "Laurier and the Liberal Party," published in 1903, after he had become editor of the News, Mr. Willison devoted a chapter to imperialism and Racialism. In it he shows that in 1900—as today—the French Conservatives, allied with Bourassa, made their campaign upon the cry that Laurier in authorizing the sending of Canadians to participate in the war in South Africa had sacrificed the autonomy of Canada, while in Ontario the cry was, "We must maintain Canada as a British country; let us vote against absolutism, boodleism, racialism, disloyalty and Tarte." He shows that during the session before the general election of 1900, while the Canadian troops were battling for the Empire on the veldt, Bourassa attacked the government in the House of Commons for sending the contingents to South Africa without the direct authority of parliament.

In one of the greatest speeches ever delivered before the Commons of Canada Sir Wilfrid defended his action. Mr. Willison thus narrates the closing portions of that speech, with its references to Mr. Bourassa:

"He pointed out that the government had called for volunteers, but had compelled no man to go to South Africa. It had simply provided the machinery and expenses to enable these volunteers to offer their lives for the honor of their country and the flag they loved. He continued:—

"'Shall the sacrifice be all on the one side and none on the other, the obligation all on the one side and none on the other? We were not compelled to do what we did, but if we chose to be generous, to do a little more than we are bound to do, where is a man living who would find fault with us for that action? He (Bourassa) dreads the consequences of this action in sending out a military contingent to South Africa. Let me tell him from the bottom of my heart that my heart is full of the hopes I entertain of the beneficial results which will accrue from that action. When our young volunteers sailed from our shores to join the British army in South Africa, great were our expectations that they would display on those distant battlefields the same courage which had been displayed by their fathers when fighting against one another in the last century. Again, in many breasts there was a fugitive sence of uneasiness at the thought that the first facing of musketry and cannon by raw recruits is always a severe trial. But when the telegraph brought us the news that such was the good impression made by our volunteers that the commander-in-chief had placed them in the post of honor, in the first ranks, to share the danger with that famous corps, the Gordon Highlanders; when we heard that they had justified fully the confidence placed in them, that they had charged like veterans, that their conduct was heroic and had won for them the encomiums of the commander-in-chief and the unstinted admiration of their comrades, who had faced death upon a hundred battlefields in all parts of the world, is there a man whose bosom did not swell with pride, that noblest of all pride, that pride of pure patriotism, the pride of the consciousness of our rising strength, the pride of the consciousness that on that day it had been revealed to the world that a new power had arisen in the West? Nor is that all. The work of union and harmony between the chief races of this country is not yet complete. We know by the unfortunate occurrences that took place only last week that there is much to do in that way. But there is no bond of union so strong as the bond created by common dangers faced in common. Today there are men in South Africa representing the two branches of the Canadian family fighting side by side for the honor of Canada. Already some of them have fallen, giving to the country the last full measure of devotion. Their remains have been laid in the same grave, there to remain to the end of time in that last fraternal embrace. Can we not hope, I ask my honorable friend himself, that in that grave shall be buried the last vestiges of our former antagonism? If such shall be the result, if we can indulge that hope, if we can believe that in that grave shall be buried contentions, the sending of the contingents would be the greatest service ever rendered Canada since Confederation.'

"This speech," says Mr. Willison, "had an extraordinary effect upon parliament. It was cheered tumultuously by members on both sides, and the crowded galleries set decorum at defiance, and joined with uncontrollable enthusiasm in the demonstration below. It touched the heart of Canada, and in Great Britain was received with unaffected praise and gratitude, praise for its power and beauty and finish, gratitude for its splendid vindication of the British cause, and splendid utterance of the love and devotion of the Canadian people to the embattled Empire. It stands as the most eloquent and impressive speech which the war has evoked.

"All this was said," continues the editor of the News, "and all these events occurred before Nov. 7, 1900, when the people of Canada declared their judgment upon the first administration of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The historian of the future will marvel greatly at some of the results of the polling. If he shall look through the musty, worm-eaten files of the chief journals of the time he will find that the contest turned largely upon the first despatch of Canadian troops to serve in a British war overseas. He will find that these soldiers were sent by a government at whose head was a French-Canadian. He will find that the French province of Quebec was represented as hostile to the war, seething with disloyalty, and honey-combed with sympathy for Britain's enemies. He will find that the English province of Ontario was aflame with loyal enthusiasm and royally proud of the contribution of troops to the cause of the Imperial mother. He will find that the government which equipped and despatched the soldiers of Canada to South Africa carried fifty-eight out of the sixty-five seats in the disloyal province of Quebec, and thirty-four out of the ninety-two seats in the loyal province of Ontario. And he shall surrely feel that if he write faithfully the story of these records there will be pronounced upon his work the judgment of that man who said, 'I believe everything but history; history is a lie.'"

Today once more Laurier and Bourassa fight again the battle over the right of the government of Canada to participate in the defence of the empire. This time it is the Liberal policy of undertaking the obligation of naval defence that is at issue in Quebec. Bourassa and Monk, the French Conservative leader, have joined hands to destroy Laurier because he is too British for them. And once more, to complete the parallelism, the Laurier who is too British for the Nationalists and Conservatives of Quebec is being held up to the people of Ontario as not British enough for them.

The real Laurier is the Laurier of that impassioned speech of 1900, the man of whom J. S. Willison, editor of the News, said in 1903 that "he labors with strenuous hand and abounding faith to unify and consolidate the various elements of the Dominion."

And this true Canadian, this patriot of unstained honor, is held up to the scorn and contempt of the British-born as an enemy of his native land, engaged in a conspiracy against the integrity of the Empire. The British-born will not be deceived.

U. S. EXPORTS OF WHEAT.

Winnipeg Free Press—A bulletin recently issued by the department of commerce and labor, Washington, gives the total export of wheat from the United States for the year ending June 30, 1911, as 23,388,619 bushels. With the exception of the black rust year of 1904-5, when the export of wheat from the United States fell to the remarkable figure of 4,394,402 bushels, the wheat export for the last fiscal year of the United States is the smallest for the past thirty years. Indeed it may be that one has to go back further than 1881 to find a year, with the exception of the year 1904-5, in which the States exported as small a quantity of wheat as 23,000,000 bushels. Thirty years ago the States exported 150,000,000 bushels of wheat. During the year ending March 31, 1910, the latest official figures we have before us, Canada exported 49,741,850 bushels of wheat.

These figures are interesting in view of Mr. Borden's contention that the exports of natural products from the States are increasing, and "that the United States produces and exports an enormous surplus of farm and animal products."

FRANK OLIVER IS UNANIMOUS CHOICE

great American Republic could easily spare two or three million people who have now their eyes on Canada. The opposition to the reciprocity agreement on the part of the great trusts of the United States and manufacturers of Eastern Canada meant that the people of the Dominion would be entirely under their domination if they did not gain their freedom now when first in fifty years the chance was offered them.

In thirty-eight years acquaintance with Mr. Oliver the speaker had found him always strictly honorable in all his dealings. It was because Mr. Oliver had held that branch lines were not good enough for Edmonton that this city was now located on two great transcontinental lines. Mr. Oliver had freed Edmonton from the monopoly of the C.P.R. and had done more to advance the interests of Alberta through railroad construction than any other man in Canada. In reclaiming the Peace River Country and the Grande Prairie for settlement he was placing a vast area commercially tributary to Edmonton.

A Voice from Calgary.

"It is almost like carrying coals to Newcastle for a Calgary Liberal to come to Edmonton to address a Liberal convention," said Stanley S. Jones, Calgary, secretary of the Provincial Liberal Association "But," continued Mr. Jones, "while Calgary has hithertoo been the black sheep, after September 21st I can assure that it will be the pet lamb of the family. I can assure you also that the two southern seats are as good as won today." Mr. Jones assured the convention that Calgary Liberals thought more highly of no Liberal in Canada than of Mr. Oliver. "Down there we all love a good fighter," said Mr. Jones, "and Mr. Oliver is that. He has won our admiration by the way he has stuck straightforwardly to his guns in guarding the interests of his own constituency, even against the admonitions, threats and curses from the Calgary camp. We in the south are not blind to the fact that a large part of the wealth of the province lies to the north of Edmonton ,and southern people are fully in sympathy with every legitimate effort to develop this north country, of which we as well as you are proud. Any measure that may be introduced in the next legislature looking to this end will certainly meet with the approval of the south.

"One thing I am not proud of," said Mr. Jones referring to McGillicuddy, "is that a former Calgary man is standing on the platform against Mr. Oliver. The answer of the average Calgary man to the charges which this party makes against Mr. Oliver would be that he knows and respects Mr. Oliver and he knows the other man."

Lucien Boudreau.

Lucien Boudreau, M.P.P., declared that the election of Mr. Oliver was already assured. The Liberal committee had picked the very best workers from the constituency and sent them to the convention to support Mr. Oliver, who was in a position to do as much more in the future as he had done in the past "Do you know," queried Mr. Boudreau, "that the province of Saskatchewan is looking this way, hoping that Mr. Oliver will be turned down, that Saskatchewan may be represented in the Dominion cabinet at the expense of Alberta.. We must see to it that Mr. Oliver is returned by a great majority. There has been considerable dissension at the beginning of this campaign, but there is no doubt now that every Liberal is going to vote for the Hon. Frank Oliver."

J. M. Macdonald.

J. M. Macdonald told how he had been turned from an opponent to a supporter of Mr. Oliver because of the impartial dealing of the Minister of the Interior in respect to homesteaders He had in every case decided questions of homestead rights on their intrinsic merits. A great many Conservatives, Mr. Macdonald said, had assured him that they were going to vote for Mr Oliver in this election because of his advocacy of the principle of reciprocity and because they believed he was the best representative Edmonton could send to Ottawa.

G. B. O'Connor.

There were three essentials to victory in an election campaign, declared G. B. O'Connor, president of the Edmonton Liberal Association. The first requisite was a popular and honest candidate, the second a good cause and the third a good and not a corrupt organization. Mr. Oliver in thirty years residence in the northwest was personally known and honored as the most honest man in the Northwest Territories. People with axes to grind had been saying things to the discredit of Mr. Oliver. It would be well to remember that there was a good deal of truth in the old campaign rhyme which closed with the lines,

"The nigger in the camp that gives the loudest shout
He's gwine to rob a hen roost before the night it out."

In speaking of the reciprocity agreement as the good cause of the campaign Mr. O'Conner declared that the talk of disloyalty was mere child's nonsense. Mr. O'Connor closed by emphasising the necessity for thorough and honest organization, and by warning the delegates to beware of pre-election roorbachs, which they might expect to have sprung on them at the last moment. If all the delegates worked properly they might expect where they had a majority of twenty-three hundred in the last election to have a majority of 5000 in this.

J. A. McDougall.

"If," declared John A. McDougall, M.P.P., "on the eve of a political campaign, I saw such a large number of people turn out to give me a send off I would feel very confident of victory." Mr. McDougall paid a glowing tribute to Mr. Oliver as an esteemed friend of many years' standing. As for reciprocity he believed it would be a good thing for the farmers, in fact for everybody in the country. "It is up to you people to turn out and do all you possibly can to secure the election of Mr. Oliver by a huge majority. [illegible] will do the same," said Mr. McDougall in conclusion.

SIR RICHARD SCORES TORY INCONSISTENCY

Shows That Hon. George E. Foster as Recently as 1892, Advocated at Washington for Reciprocity in Natural Products as Mutually Desirable.

Toronto, Aug. 29—Sir Richard Cartwright at a Liberal meeting at Association Hall tonight broke a long silence on trade issues and spoke vigorously for the reciprocity agreement. Sir Richard's speech was largely historical in its recounting of the efforts to bring about reciprocity but it was punctuated frequently with reference to the speakers old time and present opponents in parliament.

Hon. Geo. E. Foster was scored frequently, and the point made by a quotation that as recently as 1892 Mr. Foster advocated reciprocity in natural products at Washington as a measure desirable for both countries.

Sir Richard grew reminiscent of the unrestricted reciprocity campaign of 1891. That policy has not found favor since, and would not now, but Sir Richard spoke of it as "a heroic remedy for a desperate state of circumstances." He denounced the Conservative leader for abandoning an old-time policy, and pictured the scorn with which Sir John A. Macdonald and Hincks would have dealt with their degenerate successors. This led naturally to a destructive criticism of the loyalty cry.

Sir Richard closed with a declaration of Canada's place as a hostage or link of union between Great Britain and the United States.

Louvre Re-Opened.

Paris, Aug. 29—The Louvre reopened to the public today for the first time since the disappearance of the painting, "Mona Lisa." Everyone entering the museum went to Carre Salon to stare at the vacant place on the wall where Leonardo Da Vinci's masterpiece has hung and to discuss the theft.

AMALGAMATION VOTE ON SEPTEMBER 26TH

The city council last night fixed September 26th as the date for holding a special election to decide the question of amalgamating the twin cities—Edmonton and Strathcona. The amalgamation agreement, as agreed upon by the joint committee, composed of representative citizens from both sides of the river, and approved by the council in Strathcona, will be submitted to the qualified voters of Edmonton with only one or two minor changes in form.

Street railway extension in Strathcona and the basis of representation in the city council proved to be a stumbling block in the way of reaching an early vote on the whole agreement. These points were discussed at great length, the session lasting from eight o'clock until nearly midnight.

The proposed amalgamation agreement was taken up immediately after the reading of the minutes, all other matters going over until the council meeting set for tonight. The council went into a committee of the whole with A. C. Fraser and W. H. Clark, members of the joint amalgamation committee, present to discuss the agreement with Mayor Armstrong and the aldermen.

Mayor Elucidates.

Reading from a copy of the agreement Mayor Armstrong pointed out that the proportion of population, taxation ,assets, liabilities ,etc., as between Edmonton and Strathcona was at the ratio of five to one. Under the agreement greater Edmonton would have 10 aldermen instead of eight, as as present. That part of the city south of the river, now Strathcona, would have three aldermen and Edmonton proper seven aldermen.

Alderman Gowan opposed this basis of representation on the ground that it would give Strathcona three aldermen outright, with the possibility of the electors on the south side of the Saskatchewan river combining to select enough men on this side to give them control of the city council.

Ald. Bellamy's Objections.

Alderman Bellamy supplemented this objection with several of his own and the matters was argued at some length. Aldermen Gowan and Bellamy remained alone in their opposition to the basis of representation, the vote standing six to two in favor of the agreement as decided upon by the joint committee.

Other features of the agreement were objected to by Alderman Bellamy, who insisted that he wanted to "be shown" before voting. He found fault with the clause providing for street railway extension in Strathcona, some of which he said would not pay. If a company instead of the city owned the street railway, he declared, the extension would not be made because they have not the required number of people along the lines. Alderman McInnes was inclined to share these views, although he had finally agreed to the agreement as a whole.

Street Railway Extension.

Mr. Fraser said the clause covering street railway extension was the best bargain that members of Edmonton committee could get.

Alderman Bellamy and Gowan voted against two of the extension clauses, constituting the only opposition. They did not, however, object to the University extension. For the latter it developed that Mayor Armstrong had promised the Strathcona committee to start work this fall and if possible complete the extension before winter. Alderman Bellamy renewed his objections and a prolonged discussion followed. All of the extension clauses finally went through.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE ORPHEUM.

The moving pictures taken of the Strathcona Sports will be shown at the Orpheum on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. These includes among other features the races, crowds and the steeplechase with its five laps exactly as it occurred and very natural. The pictures are all clear and distince, vividly depicting all the events of the day.

On Friday and Saturday views of the Boy Scouts in camp will be shown. These are exceptionally fine pictures, showing in a very natural way the camp life and routine of the boys.

AT THE EMPIRE.

Mme. Nordica, who appears at the Empire Theatre on Wednesday, November 1st, is now at the zenith of her powers, and it has remained for her to achieve within the last few months one of her most memorable successes in a career fraught with success. On October 19, 1910, Mme. Nordica sang the role of Isolde for the first time at the Paris Grand Opera, and sang it in French, with the result that Paris capitulated unreservedly and welcomed the great American singer with a rapturous enthusiasm, which will probably become historic in the annals of musicdom.

IN OLD KENTUCKY.

That remarkably successful drama, "In Old Kentucky," will make its first appearance in this city October 2, 3 and 4. Although the play has been frequently in Winnipeg, as well as in the larger cities of eastern Canada, it has never been seen in the Dominion cities west of Winnipeg. Playgoers will recall "In Old Kentucky" at least by reputation elsewhere. Its vogue is world-wide and its success firmly established all over the English speaking portion of the world. In England, its success has been most noteworthy for a simon-pure American play. It is still touring Great Britain and its fame in Australia is widespread. The author is C. T. Dazey, who has never written anything else to achieve like success. Only one authorized company is to be seen in the play—and that is the organization announced for early appearance here.

Hon. Mr. Oliver will speak this evening at the Horse Hills school house and on Thursday evening at the Oddfellows' Hall in Norwood.

LABOR DAY ADDRESS

Rev. J. H. Hughson, B.A., will give a Labor Day address to men in the McDougall Church, Sunday, September 3rd, at 3 p.m. All men interested in the Labor and Capital Problem should hear this address. Good singing and discussion.

THE ROYAL WELSH CHOIR.

Speaking of the Royal Welsh Ladies' Choir, which comes to the Empire Theatre, September 29 and 30, the Ottawa Citizen says: "All the voices are sweet and mellow, and the emotional singing of both soloists and chorus was fascinating in the deepest degree. The audience was almost wildly enthusiastic, and almost every number of the long program was encored to which generous responses were made."

CHEQUES ARE FORWARDED.

A telegram received from Ottawa from the census department Saturday, advised Major De Blois Thibaudeau, census commissioner, that cheques in payment for work done by enumerators in the Edmonton district had been forwarded to all enumerators.

Returns have been forwarded to Ottawa a little less than one month ago, and the payment of sums due to enumerators in less than 30 days is more than satisfactory," said the census commissioner.

LABOR DAY EXCURSION.

The regular week-end train to Wabamun on the Grand Trunk Pacific leaving Edmonton at 1.00 o'clock Saturday and returning Monday morning at 10.30, will be held over on Monday, Sept. 4th to return leaving Edson 3.45 p.m. and Wabamun at 8.05 p.m. arriving Edmonton 10.26. This change has been made to accommodate week-end campers on account of Monday being Labor Day. Week-enders will have the privilege of going to Wabamun on Saturday afternoon's 1.00 o'clock train and remaining until Monday evening, on the regular week-end tickets.

INJURED IN STRATHCONA.

At 10 o'clock yesterday a distressing accident occurred in the C.P.R. freight yards in Strathcona. Fred Walters, a young man of 21 years, who was employed on the yard engine, fell between the engine and a string of cars and had an arm mangled which will have to be amputated. He was brought to the station on the engine tender and met there by Taylor's ambulance for conveyance to the Strathcona hospital, where his injuries are being cared for. The young man resides in Strathcona with his mother and sister and has been in the railway employ for the last nine months.

WHY HE RETIRED.

The Strathcona Plaindealer generally regarded as the personal organ of Dr. Rutherford, gives the following explanation of the ex-premier's retirement from the Edmonton constituency: "A persistent rumor from a supposedly well informed source says that the faction leaders who induced Dr. Rutherford to stand for nomination as their candidate casually intimated to him after convention that the share of the campaign expenses to be assumed by him would be $15,000 and they would look after the rest. As the story goes it dawned upon the doctor that all the skin games had not left town after the fair. He decided that the fun of an election contest with rather uncertain promise was not worth the price and declined with thanks. The result is that the maddest bunch of politicians you ever saw is scurrying around Edmonton looking for another candidate."

In what direction does every town grow? Why, west of course. That's the direction in which Edmonton will grow. Now, what part of a town always becomes the favored residential section? You will always find that in a city like Greater Edmonton the very best class of homes are erected on the opposite side of the river from the business section. Strathcona is in exactly the same relation to Edmonton as Fort Rouge is to Winnipeg. Look at Fort Rouge today. People are cheerfully paying from $50 to $300 per foot for residential property. Can you afford to overlook an opportunity like the Martin Estate.

THE VALUE OF THE UNITED STATES MARKET PRICE NORTH AND SOUTH OF THE LINE

FIGURES OFFICIALLY COMPILED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF TRADE AND COMERCE SHOW THE VALUE OF THE UNITED STATES MARKETS FOR THE FARM PRODUCTS OF CANADA.

The Department of Labor has published a valuable study of the comparative prices in Canada and the United States, during the period from 1906 to 1911, of the agricultural, fisheries, lumber and mines products. The work is in some respects a supplementary report to the department's publication last year, which recorded the course of wholesale prices during the preceding twenty years, from 1890 to 1909. In arriving at these comparative prices in the Canadian and United States cities, the method adopted in the earlier reports was followed—that is, recourse was had to the quotations of actual market transactions as recorded in trade journals or daily newspapers. The Bulletin publishes herewith certain excerpts from these voluminous tables of comparative prices, which may be of interest to the public in view of the present discussion as to the merits of reciprocity. The figures which we herewith quote deal with Winnipeg and the markets across the line which are in relatively the same position to the United States as Winnipeg is to Canada. Toronto and Buffalo figures are also placed in juxtaposition. An analysis of the figures makes it plain that, on the whole, perceptibly higher prices prevail in the American markets just south of the boundary. Occasional periods of scarcity send the Canadian prices to a premium, but, taking the markets year in and year out, the figures compiled by the Department of Labor show that, in the sale of farm products, access to the American market would be beneficial.

With respect to the table showing the average prices of grains, which follows immediately, it is to be borne in mind that the discrepancy in the United States and Canadian prices is further accentuated by the fact that in practically every case the Canadian grades are higher. Thus No. 1 Manitoba Northern wheat must weigh not less than 60 lbs. to the bushel, and be composed of at least 60 per cent. of hard red fife wheat; whereas No. 1 Northern Minnesota may consist of the hard and soft varieties of spring wheat, and weigh not less than 57 lbs. Manitoba oats weigh not less than 34 lbs. to the bushel, while Minnesota oats must weigh not less than 31 lbs. Manitoba barley weighs 45 lbs. to the bushel; Minnesota barley only 44 lbs. Tables showing the comparisons in grains, live stock, meats and vegetables, flour, etc., follow:

THE FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL MARKETS

EDMONTON CITY MARKETS

Edmonton, Aug. 29—The feature in the local market is the quality of vegetables for sale. A round of the Rice street market today gave some indication of what rain and sun together with soil has been doing in Central Alberta, during the past few months. Carrots and turnips are of exceptional size and quality. Potatoes are also of good appearance and sound.

The sale price of most market produce is in a peculiar position. Normally it should be down but the temptation for the farmer to stay at home when the days are fine keeps some lines pretty scarce with a corresponding rise in value. But such things as potatoes are seeking their level and will soon touch rock-bottom. Tubers now fetch little more than 45 or 50 cents. Roots are now sold by the bushel few of the farmers continuing to sell by the bunch.

Despite reports to the effect that hay was bound to be plentiful one cannot perceive anything of the glutted market. First Street about four o'clock revealed quite another state of affairs today. Farmers are busy and cannot come in. It may be also that some are beginning to fear a shortage in hay on account of the continued wet weather this year. Many of the sloughs will not be cut at all owing to their wet condition. None of the other lines show any sensational changes.

Winnipeg Grain Markets.

Winnipeg, Aug. 29. — The market today acted quite out of accordance with the news, which was bullish, frost being reported at several points, and in many places on the official meteorological bulletin, temperatures had been at freezing point. Although today the weather is warmer, yet the predictions are for showery weather again.

October opened 98 7-8 or 5-8 lower than the closing figures of yesterday, advancing 1-8 and fell as low as 98, spending most of the morning around the 98 5-8 mark, finally closing at 98 1-8 or 1 3-8c lower. December opened 3-4c lower than yesterday's close and at the end of the session was 1 1-2c lower, May was also 1 1-2c lower at the close.

Oats were very steady all the morning. October closing at 39 3-8 or 1-8c lower and December 1-4c lower at 39 1-8c.

The American markets closed much weaker, Minneapolis September at 101 1-4 or 1-4c lower, December at 102 3-4 or 1-4c lower also, and May at 106 7-8 or 3-4c lower. Chicago October closed at 89 3-8 or 1-8c lower; December at 94 split, or 1-4c lower and May at 7-8 split lower.

Minneapolis Grain Markets.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 29. — Warmer temperatures over the spring wheat country on both sides of the boundary took what little snap there was to buying power in the market and turned prices easier. The forecast was for fair weather, although it would not be surprising if rains would follow the frosts and this is now the particular fear of close observers in the Canadian Northwest. As to frost damage it is gauged by the Winnipeg market, it is nil, but the actual inspection of the crop ma reveal damage. The spring movement on this side of the line is not very heavy but it is enlarging. There was some increase of hedging sales in the local pit. The quality of the wheat arriving is poor and the inspection list will be closely watched to detect any importance.

Chicago Grain Markets.

Chicago, Aug. 29.—Wheat was dull today, selling off on 1-8 on liquidation of September. Wheat started lower in sympathy with the declines in the Northwest and showed anything but recuperative powers. September was sold by disgusted holders who had no desire to accept the actual articles on delivery day. It was altogether a dull professional affair. September closed 1 1-8 down at 89 3-8, and December 1 1-8 and 1-2 depressed at 94 and 1-8. The cash situation was not encouraging to the bulls, only 50,000 bushels sold today. There was some support for December at 95c, but it was soon withdrawn.

Calgary wired that while grain is very green from Calgary to Medicine Hat, it was expected the crop would pull through. A well known traveller sent word from Winnipeg that threshing returns would show a heavy discount from early promises, but he was disregarded. The seaboard reported 150 loads taken for export.

ESKIMOS TAKE SECOND FROM CALGARY CROWD

Dellar Pitched a Good Game With the Exception of the Fourth Session—Spiesman Made His First Appearance in an Edmonton Uniform—Whisman and Slight Furnish the Features—Score 4-2.

Amid frenzied shouts of acclaim from about five hundred citizens, bat boys, soft drink ushers and representatives of the peanut trust, the so-called Edmonton baseball team went out and administered a drubbing to the Bronchos. Our old friend Phil Dellar was on the hill for the Eskimos and the way he made the Cowpunchers fan the breezes wasn't at all slow. No less than eight of the mighty swatters of Stanley's crew cut all sorts of figures around the ball, but never touched it. Phil had them all guessing, as of old, and only in two sessions did the Calgary crowd do very much, and this was no doubt due to the great support tendered the ex-Eskimo twirler when it was needed. In the fourth innings the Bronchos got their four hits, and on a fielder's choice, but on account of the locals' snappy work, only one run came in.

Barnstead, who has on many previous occasions presided in the box against Edmonton, was sent in last night, and when he did get them over the Eskimos took very kindly to his offerings. Barney was as wild as a March hare in April, and he doled out free tickets to first in chunks, no less than seven walks being marked up to him. However, he struck out four men and kept the hits fairly well scattered. Spiesman, a new recruit, found in the bushes in the vicinity of Wetaskiwin, started out at third base for the locals and he has the earmarks of a comer. He has a nice peg to first and is fast on his feet, besides putting lots of steam into the bat when he swipes the ball. Although he did not secure a hit and had one error chalked up against him, he did very well. On account of an injury to Spiesman's ankle in the second innings, Dudley took his place at third, Slight went to first, Sorenson caught and Heinrich went out into the field.

The outstanding features of last night's game were quite numerous. Slight, in the third innings, made a great catch. Barnstead was at bat, and he dropped one a few feet from the plate. Sorenson picked up the ball and his throw was low and wide to Slight, but the latter, keeping one foot on his bag, reached out with his gloved hand and speared the ball out of the dust. In the eighth, Piper, the first man up, walloped out a three-bagger. O'Brien sent a long fly to centre field and as soon as the ball alighted in Whisman's basket, Larry beat it home as fast as he could. Whisman's throw to the plate, however, was a perfect one, right into Sorenson's mitt, and the latter tagged "Rabbit" out just as he slid for the plate. In the seventh spasm Dellar, just to show the Bronchos up a bit, struck out three men in succession.

Edmonton managed to send one man across the platter in the first innings. Mackin and Bender both walked and Bell's single sent Johnny home. Bender was caught trying to get too big a lead off second, but Whisman singled. Dudley flied out to Vandine, and Slight's grounder forced Whisman at second base, making the third out. Heinrich got a hit in the fourth, was sacrificed to second by Sorenson, went to third on Dellar's grounder, but died at the last station because Mackin was thrown out at first. Three large runs were annexed by the homesters in the sixth session. Dudley started the trouble by clouting out a safe one. Slight attempted a sacrifice, but Chick failed to field the ball in time and when Heinrich sent one through Vandine's fingers, the bases were all peopled. Sorenson, upon whose shoulders now rested the big task of bringing in a run or so, fouled out to Davidson. Dellar struck out and things were beginning to look rather bad. Mackin, however, sent a hot one between first and second and was safe, two runs scoring on the play. Bender dumped out a beautiful single and one more run came in. Bell's best offering was a foul fly which Davidson grabbed. These three runs put the game on ice. Two hits were made in the seventh by Whisman and Dudley, but nothing came from them, and as the game was called in the eighth the Mackinites did not get another chance at bat.

Calgary was blanked for the first three innings, not a single player getting even the semblance of a hit. In the fourth, however, O'Brien lead off with a single. Moran attempted to sacrifice, but Dellar's throw to Bell cut off O'Brien at second. Chick walloped out a two bagger, sending Moran home, but he himself was caught trying to stretch the hit for one more base. Vandine and Flanagan both singled, but Streib struck out. The visitors secured their second counter in the sixth spasm. O'Brien was retired at first, but Moran singled and went to second on a passed ball. Chick's shirt sleeve came in contact with the ball and umpire Wheeler sent the fair haired boy to first. Vandine hit a safe one and Moran scored. Flanagan struck out, retiring the side. In the seventh Dellar struck out three men in succession, but in the eighth Piper clouted out a three sacker, O'Brien's fly to Whisman caused the latter to make a beautiful throwin to catch Piper. Moran flied out to Heinrich.

There will be two games today, one this afternoon at 3 o'clock and the second at 6 p.m. The matinee performance should be about the best game seen here for a long time for Dickinson and Standridge will be the opposing slab artists. Dicky should take Pete's measure again, because he has done it before. Foster, the city league pitcher, will probably be given a tryout this evening.

SEVERAL WANDERERS FOR CALGARY TEAM

Frank Patrick Arrived in Bronchoville on Monday—Nearly All the Winged Wheel Have Been Signed—League Now An Assured Fact.

Calgary, Aug. 29.—All the hockey rumors were crystalized into solid fact Monday night, when Frank Patrick, who, with his brother Lester, is at the head of the big proposed Calgary, Edmonton, Victoria, Vancouver professional league, struck town with no less a personage than Walter Smaille, the great left wing and cover point of the Montreal Wanderers.

That the league is an assured fact and that there will be the finest players in the business right here in the West, is the sum and substance of the hockey magnate's. With Hamby Shore, as rumor says, ready to step into the game under the right proposition, Headdy McDonough, the man who took the great Port Arthur team in quest of the Stanley cup last winter, in Calgary also, and a long list of hockey men of the East already signed up, the big league will proceed to do a rushing trade. The arena will be used in Calgary this winter and if artificial ice is needed, a rink will be built next year.

Among the men already signed up for Calgary are Jimmy Gardner of the Wanderers, Ernie Johnson, who held down the position of cover point for the same team, Harry Hyland, the right wing of the Wanderers, Don Smith, the Renfrew cover point and Walter Smaill, the lightning left wing of the Wanderers. Practically all the Wanderers have been engaged and no better hockey men are to be found in the world than the same winged wheel men.

Battling Nelson Not All In Yet.

Chicago, Ill., August 29—Former lightweight champion Battling Nelson yesterday signed articles calling for three twelve round battles to be staged during September and early October before the Armory Athletic Association of Boston.

Nelson postponed his fight planned with Lew Powell before a Sacramento club. Instead he meets Tommy Nixon September 13 at Boston and two weeks later takes on Young Saylor, the Indianapolis lightweight. He later will fight Matty Baldwin.

To Fight Kelly on Labor Day.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 29—Fight or no fight with Champion Ad. Wolgast at Milwaukee on September 15, Packey McFarland will box six rounds with Leo Kelly, at St. Louis, on Labor Day. Emil Thiery, manager for McFarland, last night came out flatfooted in answer to the statement emanating from Promoter Frank Mulkern, of Milwaukee, that the Wolgast-McFarland bout would be called off if McFarland fought Kelly before meeting the champion. "Regardless of the Milwaukee fight McFarland will go through with his engagement to fight Kelly on September fourth," said Thiery. "We have posted a forfeit for that fight and will not back out now."

PROSPECTS ROSY FOR LEAGUE NEXT SEASON

Everything Now Points to Eight Club League for Next Year—Winnipeg's and Brandon's Franchises to be Taken Over by Western Syndicate.

Now that the Western Canada League is drawing to a close, a great many of the fans here and in the other league cities will be wondering what is to be done in the basball line for next season. Prospects at the time of writing for an eight club league are beginning to loom up pretty bright and it is a safe bet that when the W.C.L. opens next season, there will be two more teams doing business than there were this year. It is a cinch that Winnipeg and Brandon are good ball towns under the conditions that they are each represented by good teams. Both clubs are heavy losers as the result of the season, which will close this coming Saturday, but that is no reason why either of the above named cities should not make another attempt. The way things stand at present, neither Brandon nor Winnipeg have enthusiastic heads at the helm and this will no doubt be remedied before next year. It is altogether likely that the franchises of these two cities will be taken from them on the ground that they failed to finish the season. This leaves the way open for any outsiders to buy the franchises from the league and that is just what is going to happen. The Bulletin learned on absolutely good authority yesterday that an Alberta syndicate is prepared to buy both the Winnipeg and Brandon franchises, in the event of them being forfeited. With good teams and energetic owners these two clubs should prove a success. It is a cinch that Edmonton, Calgary, Moose Jaw and Saskatoon will be ready again next spring and with Winnipeg, Brandon and two other teams a splendid eight club league can be formed. At present there are three outside clubs anxious for berths in the W.C.L. and they are Medicine Hat, Lethbridge and Regina. However, as only two of these can get in, the choice will have to be made by the league.

Even although the Western Canada league has not been the success it might have attained this year, yet things are already shaping up nicely for a good eight club circuit for next season, and here is two doughnuts to a red crab apple that when the curtain of the 1912 season is pulled up that the W.C.L. will be composed of the following teams: Edmonton, Calgary, Brandon, Winnipeg, Moose Jaw, Saskatoon and two out of these three: Medicine Hat, Regina and Lethbridge.

Morgan-Owen Told the Truth

From the stories that the Corinthians brought down with them from the north, Edmonton has some classy football players up in their burg. Morgan-Owen even says that they are a little better than those who call Calgary their home. Now, for goodness sake! let's hurry up and get a game with our northern neighbors, if for no other reason than to disperse the lurking suspicion of the Corinthians that Edmonton has something on us in the football direction.

It's bad enough to have them think they can play baseball, but when it comes to them playing just as good football—perish the thought!—Albertan.

TENNIS TOURNEY AT NIAGARA ON LAKE

May Sutton and Miss Hotchkiss Look Like the Two for the Finals in the Ladies' Singles—Whitney the Pick for the Men's Singles.

Niagara on the Lake, Ont., Aug. 29—The International lawn tennis tourney commenced this morning on the turf courts of the Queens Royal Hotel, Niagara on the Lake. Armstrong defeated Wooland, of Ontario, in the first round, by the scores of 6-4 6-3; F. H. Hainds, the Dartmouth player, won the first from Price of Buffalo 6-1, 6-0. Whitney, the Harvard player and former National Interscholastic champion is doped out as the winner, but the list of entries which comprises mostly the younger coming players, is so evenly matched, that great enthusiasm will be in note during the week.

Miss May Sutton showed beautiful form when she defeated Miss Marquis in straight sets 6-0, 6-1. Miss Hotchkiss in the lower half disposed of Miss Craig and will without doubt meet Miss Sutton in the finals.

Y.M.C.A. Tennis Tourney.

The tennis tournament which is being conducted by Westminster church and the Y.M.C.A. tennis clubs, is becoming very interesting, as the singles are drawing to a close. The following is the schedule for the doubles which start this evening:

Aug. 30—N. Watson, Dr. Madill vs. B. Cook, C. Fulford.
Aug. 31—F. Aitken, F. R. Coutant vs. I. Dickie, H. L. Morritt.
Sept. 1—S. S. Cormack, P. Gilbert vs. A. E. McKim, J. S. Clark.
Sept. 2—G. Scott, M. Eby vs. O. Morrison, C. H. Trueman.
Sept. 4—H. Paradis, H. McIntyre vs. W. Walsh, M. Harlow.

The schedule for the semi-finals will be announced next week.

CORINTHIANS WIN FROM VANCOUVER

English Team Made Four Goals in First Half—Home Team Outplayed Visitors in Second Period — Score Was 5-1.

Vancouver, Aug. 29.—The Corinthians won in the first game against Vancouver tonight by five goals to one. Local players were nervous in the first half hour and the visitors scored four goals. When Vancouver steadied down, however, the visitors were never in the game. In the second half the Corinthians crossed the half way line only three times.

Vancouver was weak in front of goal and should have at least tied up the score.

Strathcona Wins From Y.M.C.A.

The Strathcona boys won last evening's Charity Shield game from the Y.M.C.A. by the score of 1-0. The performance was not any hair-raising exhibition of scientific football, because the Second street grounds do not tend to make such a game possible. Jimmy Bill's footwork was the outstanding feature, but his team-mates, however were unable to pull out a win.

MOOSE JAW TURNS TABLES ON SASKATOON

Moose Jaw, Aug. 29.—Moose Jaw won tonight's game on their [illegible], playing with the old time vim. The feature of the game was a home run by Cox in the fourth innings, in which he chased two men home. Sensational assists by Harper at short also figured in what was a slug-feast.

Final score was 9-6.

SEE DEAD BODIES IN GLACIER.

Frozen Bodies Chopped Out by Guides Supposed to be Those of Tourists Lost Fourteen Years Ago.

Berne, Switzerland, Aug. 29—Tourists while crossing the Loetschen glacier yesterday saw deep down in the clear ice the faces of two dead men. Guides accompanied the party, chopped out with their ice axes the frozen bodies of the two men and brought them to the surface. The bodies have not yet been identified, but they probably are those of two London tourists named Bemebecke and Coin, who disappeared fourteen years ago.

TUESDAY'S RESULTS AT WINDSOR MEET

Favorites Failed to Win in Three Races—Jockey Taplin Was Suspended for the Remainder of Meeting for Rough Riding.

Windsor, Aug. 29.—Surprises were in order at Windsor this evening. In the fourth race, Star Bottle showed a smart performance and won from the favorite Nimbus. Star Charter galloped home with a four lengths lead in the $700 handicap, while the race for Canadian bred horses went to Commola.

Jockey Taplin was suspended for the remainder of the meeting for rough riding on Cliff Edge in the fourth race.

SHOWS STRINGENCY OF IMMIGRATION LAWS

Russian Who Had Resided for Twelve Years at Veregin, Sask., and Has Large Farm Unable to Return from United States.

Winnipeg, Aug. 29.—J. Bruce Walker, commissioner of immigration, announced a very peculiar occurrence today, which illustrates the stringency of the Canadian immigration laws. In 1899 Larbin Peretudoff immigrated from Russia to Canada. With some hundreds of Doukhobors he settled at Veregin, Sask., securing a farm which he has owned and operated for a dozen years.

Like the majority of his fellow-countrymen he declined to take out naturalization papers. Some months ago he was called to Seattle because of the illness in his family. Yesterday he reached the Canadian boundary, and asked if he was a British subject he replied in the negative. Asked if he was entering Canada from the land of his birth, to a direct home from the land he was in he answered "no."

Then despite the fact that he has over 160 acres in crop at Veregin and that he had lived in Canada for twelve years he was informed that he could not get back home to Veregin. The offset of this drastic action by the department of immigration will probably lead to the immediate naturalization of many foreigners in the west.

RECIPROCITY WILL BRING A GREAT BOOM SAYS M.P.

Winnipeg, Aug. 29—In the opinion of Hon. J. W. Wilson, Liberal member of the British House of Commons for North Worcestershire, reciprocity with the United States will make this country boom as she has never boomed before, and also as result of it, Old Country capital and immigrants will flow into Canada even faster than they are doing now. Mr. Wilson has been staying here for a few days on his way across country on a pleasure trip. He left today for Edmonton. Speaking of reciprocity, Mr. Wilson was confident it would work for the good of Canada.

"The United States," said Mr. Wilson, "is the natural market of this country, and I cannot see why the two countries should not work together for their mutual benefit. I think that this statement of the Conservatives that the Liberals of England are not giving Canada a square deal on the tariff question is foolish. You cannot mould the trade of countries by artificial agents, such as tariffs. The United States is the logical market of Canada, and there would be no sense in carrying goods to the Old Country in preference to that.

"It seems to me that the States is bound to have Canadian natural products some time. If they do not get them now, they will need them badly in ten years, when their own are depleted that they may lower the tariff wall of their own accord. On the other hand when they do lower their tariff wall as they offer to do now, they will see to it that they will make a good bargain. If Canada does not get into that bargain, the States will join with Argentine or some other country and will be only too glad to get their trade on any terms. The question simply resolves itself into whether Canada could have got better terms or not, not whether there will be any good result from the passing of the pact or not. There is no doubt that reciprocity will boom this country. Settlers are pouring in just now, but when reciprocity passes they will come in even faster. Capital, too, will be brought over from England in greater quantities than ever before."

ENTWISTLE.

Bulletin News Service.

The Liberal primary for the Entwistle district was held today. It was certainly a large and a very enthusiastic aggregation of men. Alfred Waite was appointed convener and S. W. Morris secretary. Six candidates were nominated. Voting by ballot Alfred Waite, H. T. James and W. E. Entwistle were elected by overwhelming majorities. These gentlemen will therefore be the delegates of the Entwistle district Liberals to the Edmonton convention. This is the first election that the Entwistle district has been well organized and will now be a very important factor in all future elections. There are a very large number of Americans in this district who have not been residents of the Dominion for a sufficient period to be naturalized but in the space of a few months will be.

Thomas Blute, of Edmonton, is in Entwistle for a few days.

Mr. Morrow, a large contractor on the Peace River branch of the C. N. R., is having the time of his life in rafting square timber and oats down the Pembina river to where the line will cross the river. He and some of his men were marooned on a raft of square timber with hundreds of sacks of oats on their first attempt at this venture. The raft caught on some unseen obstacle in the river and the men were forced to spend the night in water nearly to their waists, in a heavy downpour of rain and a raw wind blowing. The raft righted itself in the morning and they proceeded to their destination in safety.

Hon. Frank Oliver has accepted an invitation to be present at the Entwistle fall fair.

Great Ovations Greet Sir Wilfrid in His Triumphal Tour.

Halifax, N.S., Aug. 29—Sir Wilfrid Laurier continued his triumphal tour through Nova Scotia today, speaking at Digby, Annapolis, Middleton, Kentville and Windsor. At every point he was enthusiastically acclaimed by thousands. The Liberals are predicting gains all down the line Fisherman and farmers everywhere are supporting reciprocity without respect to party.

Speaking with the Premier at Digby, Hon W. S. Fielding made a fighting speech creating great enthusiasm. Reciprocity was the battle of posing it had been heard from but posing it had been heard from but the masses would speak on September 21. Mr. Fielding declared himself a sane free trader but not willing to injure any legitimate Canadian industry. It was not a party fight.

He appealed to the Conservatives to follow the old flag of Sir John A. Macdonald not the new fangled opposition guided by the Montreal and Toronto millionaires. The minister of finance aroused intense enthusiasm by scoring Sir Byron Walker of the Canadian Bank of Commerce for arguing that the farmers must not have reciprocity lest their loyalty be impaired, while he sent money to Wall street at ten and fifteen per cent. Mr. Fielding declared the reciprocity policy to be the reduction of taxation and the increase of trade.

The maritime provinces are aroused on reciprocity. Everywhere the conviction is expressed that the Conservative leader will himself fall in Halifax as the result of opposition to the pact. Careful calculation goes to show that reciprocity will make marked, if not sweeping gains in all of the three maritime provinces.

In his speech Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that Quebec and Ontario would increase the Liberal representation and reciprocity was the policy which must mean much to the residents of the prairie provinces. The Liberal leader declared the prospects for a great victory throughout the whole of Canada never brighter. The sole issue was reciprocity

Damage Claims Against Mexico.

Washington, D.C., Aug. 29—Many claims of American citizens against Mexico for alleged losses and damages sustained during the recent revolution continue to pour in to the state department. They are being forwarded to the Mexican government. The declared policy of the United States is to refer all such contentions to Mexico for consideration by the claim tribunal created by President De La Bara, and the state department will not interpose except in cases of apparent miscarriage of justice.

They keep the whole system in the pink of condition.

INNISFREE.

Bulletin News Service.

Dr. Steele visited town last week and made arrangements to have his house renovated.

K. A. Blatchford, of Edmonton, is painting the Bank of Commerce here.

The town of Innisfree sold their debentures last week to T. B. Billett, of Winnipeg. The town will lay sidewalks on all streets of any importance, and as the streets have been well graded it will mean a vast improvement to the appearance of the town.

The farmers have started to cut their grain. By the middle of this week cutting will be general. A heavy crop is reported.

Gustave L'Heureux, proprietor of the Alberta hotel here, has let the contract of painting his house to K. A. Blatchford, of Edmonton.

S. McEwen, of Chatham, N.B., spent a couple of days in town, the guest of D. J. Dickson. Mr. McEwen is opening up a general store business in Coronation.

Charles Briggs, of Ranfurly, spent Sunday in town the guest of L. M. Trace.

A daughter was born on Saturday, Aug. 26th, to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Norris.

Loftus and Dickson sold a half section of C. P. R. land last week to Gibson & Cummings, of Deloraine.

W. M. Slocomb, agent of the C. N. R. here, has for the past month been away on a vacation, visiting at Washington and other points. Mr. Slocomb resumed his duties as agent on Monday.

It all goes to prove that the business in and around Innisfree is fast improving. Two years ago the Bank of Commerce was open only two days a week. A year ago it was opened permanently with two of a staff, whereas today there are five bank clerks, including the manager.

H. R. Maine, of Macleod, arrived here last week to relieve H. G. Matthew, who is taking a holiday trip to Eastern Canada.

H. M. Dallahad, of the Bank of Commerce staff, has been transferred to the Edmonton office.

Wm. Beare, of Londonderry, Ireland, will take Mr. Dallahad's place on the Bank of Commerce staff here.

Innisfree, Aug. 26.

STROME.

Bulletin News Service.

A large tract of land north of town, within two blocks of the new Merchants' Building has been thrown open for sale in acreage blocks, from 4 to 6¾ each. Herman Coles is the agent.

Herman Feddema, whose farm lies about four miles south of Strome, is probably the first to thresh grain in this district. On Wednesday Mr. Feddema threshed barley, which was cut the week before, and an average of 44 bushels to the acre was obtained.

Several hunting parties went out of Strome for the sloughs and lakes on August 23. The game proved scarce and quite a few returned with empty bags.

S. C. Latornell, of the Merchants' Bank, who had notified the Department of Agriculture at Winnipeg that a number of men would be required to handle the crops in the district, invited the farmers to inform him of the help they required. Immediate response to this request enabled all the men who arrived in Strome from the East to secure engagements on the day of arrival. All the help needed has now been obtained.

The old skating rink has been purchased privately and moved to a lot north of town. It will be converted into a barn.

Some fine specimens of Percherons were imported into Strome this week from Iowa by C. E. Valentine. Adolph Roth secured two beautiful mares, two and three years old. Percherons are in favor in this district.

Over $2,500 in money, as well as 20 medals and a silver cup are offered in prizes at the Strome-Killam exhibition on September 8th. Friends of the fair in Strome have offered special prizes to the value of $250. A fine race track has been laid out under the direction of Kyle, Lyall & Lissay. Exhibitors' hall, 200 feet in length, is being erected, as well as booths for poultry and domestic exhibits.

An old-timer returned to Strome on Thursday in the person of Mr. Wright. Wright sold his farm south of Strome last fall and has since travelled extensively in the States. He has now purchased another farm in the Strome district. He says Western Canada has the States beaten everywhere, and, although an American by birth, he admits Canada is the place for him.

There is great political activity in Strome.

Some of the Finest and Most Elaborate Pianos Ever Shipped into Edmonton Arrived at the Mason and Risch Showrooms Today

The above statement is not an exaggeration but an accomplished fact. The MASON & RISCH COMPANY have been making rapid strides in the perfecting of their pianos and are in a position to meet the most exacting demands of critical musicians.

The pianos just arrived are made in plain and elaborate cases of walnut, birl walnut, circassian walnut, mission oak and mahogany, and whilst great care has been given to the "outside" construction of these instruments their tonal qualities have not been forgotten. The tone of each piano is mellow and full—giving pleasure to the most sensitive ear.

It will cost you nothing to see these new arrivals and we will be delighted to see you when convenient for you to call.

R.L. BORDEN SPEAKS IN MONTREAL THEATRE

Repeats the Old Loyalty Talk and Asserts That Reciprocity if Adopted Will Imperil Canadian Autonomy and Imperialism.

Montreal, Aug. 29—R. L. Borden was the recipient of a great welcome tonight when thousands crowded to His Majesty's theatre to hear him deliver the first speech of his Quebec campaign. Many hundreds had to be turned away so great was the crowd which thronged around the doors of the theatre.

The leader of the opposition devoted nearly all his attention to the reciprocity issue, analyzing the pact for over an hour in all its phases. The maintenance of Canadian autonomy and imperialism were the points emphasized in his address and they seemed to find sympathy with his audience. His closing words, "President Taft says that the ties which bind Canada to the motherland are light and almost imperceptible. Let me say to him and to Sir Wilfrid Laurier that the ties are stronger today than they ever were and please God they will never be broken," met with loud applause.

BUMPER CROPS AT CAMROSE

Harvest Now General in Wheat Fields and Some Oats Ready to Cut—No Damage From Frost.

Special to Bulletin.

Camrose, Aug. 29—Anticipations of the farmers for a bumper crop this year are being fully realized throughout the Camrose district in spite of the excessive rainfalls. Harvest is now general in the wheat fields and some oats are ready to cut. Barley and rye are all in the stook.

On one or two occasions the mercury dropped to the frost line but the farmers are positive that no damage has been done. The yield of grain will be heavy and the farmers are jubilant over the large monetary returns it will bring them.

McGILLICUDDY LIE IS NAILED

Lethbridge, Aug. 29—W. A. Buchanan, managing director of Lethbridge Herald since its inception and Liberal candidate in this district, denies the statement made by McGillicuddy at Toronto last night, that the Herald had received money from a "slush fund" to change it from a weekly to a daily. He states that the Herald had never received any contribution from any organization or "slush fund" from anyone.

RIFLEMEN'S OPINION.

Prominent Marksman Says That Low Position at Bisley Has Come to Stay.

Ottawa, Aug. 27—Col. John Barlow of the British National Rifle Association, arrived at the D.R.A. ranges, this morning. He is an old friend of the Canadian association and comes from England nearly every year to attend the matches here. "I think that the low position has come in Bisley to stay. It has ben adopted as within the rules at Bisley and I think it is here to stay. Personally I would favor making the competitors keep the rifle free from the ground but the war office says 'allow anything' and it will have to go."

HON. CLIFFORD SIFTON IN CITY OF ST. JOHN

Says That Reciprocity Will Ruin Trade of Railways Running East and West and Will Do Damage to Canadian Ports.

St. John, N.B., Aug. 29—Hon Clifford Sifton addressed an enthusiastic audience here tonight and got a great reception from the crowd present, estimated at three thousand. Mr. Sifton dealt solely with reciprocity and declared if it went into effect the east and west traffic of the railroads of Canada would be ruined by the trade north and south but the greatest damage would be done to Canada ports, more probably to St. John.

He also stated that reciprocity would place Canada at the mercy of the United States and the Dominion would be bound hand and foot.

Premier Hazen presided and made a short address. The other speakers were Dr. Daniel and E. H. A. Powell, the Conservative candidates.

AROUND THE CITY

LOCAL

Summer closing on Wednesday afternoons is being observed today for the last time this year, by Edmonton's leading retail stores, the Hudson's Bay Company, Acme, Purvis Company, W. Johnstone Walker, and J. H. Morris Company.

The death occurred this morning of Edgar Lewis Stephens, of Seattle, who was visiting in the city accompanied by his wife. The funeral will take place at 10:30 tomorrow morning from Connelly and McKinley's undertaking parlors to the Edmonton cemetery.

By misadventure it was stated yesterday that the amount of the business tax paid for their stores by the Hudson's Bay Company was $85. The amount of this tax for the present year was $598.44. $85 was the amount of the business tax paid by the company for their district offices.

Alderman McInnis will introduce a motion at the meeting of the council tonight authorizing proceedings looking to the expropriation of ten feet of land on either side of the lanes in the district bounded by MacKenzie Avenue on the north, by the lane immediately north of Jasper on the south, by Eighth street on the west and Second street on the east. The purpose of this action will be to provide adequate facilities for the installation of spur tracks throughout this district, which is now recognized as the section of the city devoted to wholesale houses.

The establishment of ag gas plant will be the principal subject of discussion at the adjourned meeting of the council to be held tonight. Petitions asking for the re-submission for the vote of the ratepayers of the agreement with the International Heating and Lighting Co., are in the hands of the secretary treasurer and will be considered at this meeting. The proposition of W. H. Pearson, of the Universal Gas Company, of Toronto, will also come up for consideration, together with that submitted by W. B. Hughes on behalf of an English firm.

DUCK SHOOTING IN THE CITY

In the very heart of the city, scores of wild ducks have been shot by sportsmen since the opening of the hunting season, a week ago today. The Hudson's Bay Reserve, with its two square miles of bush and slough land, has been the Messa of the Nimrods. When the season opened, some of the big sloughs were fairly alive with wild duck. But by this time they have been pretty well scared off or shot off. One gun artist went out early and late one day last week and bagged twenty-five birds, another got eighteen the same day. These were the biggest bags made. A number of other nimrods secured something to show for their expedition, but many came back empty handed. There are but few ducks now in the reserve, according to the latest reports.

WAINWRIGHT DISTRICT MEETING.

The Wainwright district of the Methodist church met at Tofield last week There were present: Rev. T. Philips, of Wainwright (chairman); Rev. S. Nicholson, Tofield; Rev. D. W. Poriscoy (Edgerton); Rev. R. H. Brett, Holden; Rev. R. J. Merriam, Viking; Rev. E T. Hemp, Round Hill; Rev. G. E. Graham, Kinsella; Rev. W. Sykes, Jarrow; Rev. F. E. Boathroyd, Irma. Mrs. Philips, Mrs. Meriam and Mrs. Boathroyd accompanied their husbands.

On Wednesday night and throughout Thursday consideration was given to several classes of the work. The subjects discussed were as follows: The Missionary at the Front; The Man at the Base of Supplies; The Minister as a Student; The Conduct of the Service; Messages that Arouse and Win; Messages that Edify and Enlist; The Minister in Pastoral and Social Life; The District Missionary Campaign; Peace of Sunday School in the Life of the Church; The Citizen and Local Option.

With the presence on Friday of the Rev. T. C. Buchanan, superintendent of missions, the meeting fell to the work of making financial arrangements for the year. Although as yet not one mission is self-supporting, the estimates from the circuits provided for an aggregate increase of eighteen hundred dollars for Ministerial support alone, so that while not yet a strong district, in comparison with other parts of the conference, the Wainwright district bids fair to make good in the not distant future.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the Tofield friends for their general hospitality.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT.

Informations were filed with the District Court this morning in seven criminal cases. Of these, four came from the police magistrate, one from the mounted police, and two from justice courts outside of the city.

Sam Onyschuk, is charged with two offences, in separate complaints. In one he is accused of having stolen a bicycle belonging to James R. Snyder, a newspaper man, on August 10. The second complaint accused Onyschuk of the theft of a fountain pen and watch from Henry Miller, a teamster.

Frank Wilson got away with a silver watch and gold chain belonging to R. L. Haskell, who is employed in the post office building, according to the complaint filed in the case. Evidence at the preliminary hearing before Magistrate Gowan showed that while engaged at his usual duties, Haskell was approached by Wilson, who claimed to be deaf and dumb, with a request for financial assistance. Haskell said he gave Wilson 25 cents, and a few minutes later missed his watch and chain. This all happened on August 7.

Edwin Smelzer, of Pine Ridge, is accused of having stolen a quantity of goods from a store at Stony Plain, July 11, and he will have to answer to the charge in the District Court.

Inspector Worsley, of the mounted police, sent down the case of Frank Dean, charged with stealing $21.83 from H. G. Jamieson, of the G.T.P. engineering staff. Dean was formerly employed as cook for Mr. Jamieson, who accuses him of having drawn his wages twice.

From the court of Justice of the Peace George T. Lownes, at Strathcona, the case of Judge Whestnat, charged with assault on the person of James Robinson, August 15, when, it is claimed, Whestnat hit Robinson on the head with a bottle, rendering the latter unconscious for some time.

In the information filed against Harrie McDonald, forgery is charged, Henry Wilson, a grocer at 44 Queen's avenue, being the complainant. On July 4, the complaint states, Wilson cashed a bad check for McDonald, amounting to $38.60, bearing the forged signatures of Ball Brothers. The cheque was drawn on the Imperial Bank of Canada and made payable to McDonald.

The cases have not yet been set for trial in the District Court.
